

better

Better Growth

Following Jesus is a process, and He doesn't expect us to be perfect. But following Him should change the way we love one another; it's impossible to pursue Jesus and sin at the same time. God did not save you to enslave you, but to empower you to become immeasurably more than anything you could have ever asked or imagined.

Discussion Questions:

- 1. How do you feel about change? Love it? Hate it? Depends on what is changing? Elaborate on how you truly view change.
- 2. Talk about a major goal you've achieved in your life. When you first set that goal for yourself, did it feel unachievable? What were some "next steps" you used in pursuing it?
- 3. Today, Dave gave different steps on our faith journey: Seeker, Receiver, Follower, and Contributor.
 - a. Where are you in those steps?
 - b. Which was the easiest?
 - c. What are some things preventing you from taking your next step?
- 4. In the message, Dave described a follower as having a daily pursuit of Jesus, confession and repentance, financial surrender, being involved in church and one who loves others:
 - a. Which ones are you doing well with?
 - b. Which area or areas are you struggling in?
- 5. What is your next step this week and how can the group do to help you take your next step?