

FOR THE WHOLE WORLD

One of the unique things Christians believe is that God became one of us. For thirty years he lived undercover as a carpenter, surfaced as a miracle worker and rabbi for three years, and allowed himself to die in the most degrading way imaginable. He came as one of us but was treated as less than one of us.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 1. What, if anything, do you do to feel close to God? What is it about that habit, practice, or approach that makes you feel God's presence?
- 2. In what ways have you seen people look in the wrong places to discover what God is like? How did it shape the ways they view God?
- 3. Read John 1:14. What do you think it means that Jesus is "the Word"? What does it tell us about Jesus' connection to God?
- 4. During the message, Dave said, "Jesus didn't claim to have the best explanation of God. He claimed to be the best explanation of God." In what ways do you find it challenging, disturbing, or offensive?
- 5. Talk about some of the wrong places you've looked to find out what God is like—religious traditions, your circumstances, nature, within yourself. What limitations did you discover in these attempts to find God?
- 6. At the end of message, Dave challenged you to read at least one of the four Gospels with this question in mind: What do we learn about the Father from the Son? Which gospel will you begin with? What can this group do to help you follow through on this homework?
