

My Application

It's one thing to believe and enjoy practical teaching. But gaining knowledge is not enough to grow our faith —applying it is.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What is an area of your life that you know a lot about, but aren't necessarily applying what know?
2. If you grew up attending church, what was emphasized? Information? Correct Theology? Application? Sacraments? Attendance?
3. When you think of the phrase "practical teaching," what comes to mind?
4. Looking back, have you ever applied a specific teaching of Scripture that prepared you for an unexpected storm?
5. What stands out to you in the parable of the wise and foolish builders?
6. "Unapplied truth is like unapplied paint. It doesn't do anybody any good." Can you think of an area in your spiritual life where a bit more application might make a big difference?
