

Pursuing Uncommon Unity

INTRODUCTION

When we pursue uncommon unity, the result is a house full of misfits and a Kingdom full of miracles.

Discussion questions:

1. Ask a series of questions that show differences/similarities within the group. (Use these examples or come up with your own)
 - a. Cake or pie?
 - b. Beach or mountain vacation?
 - c. Dog or cats?
 - d. Netflix or Youtube?
2. How do you feel when others celebrate with you? How do you feel when you celebrate alone?
3. Has God placed someone on your heart that He wants you to invite? If so, who? If not, start praying He will.
4. What excuses have you made or are you making that keep you from serving/giving/inviting/etc.?
5. What can the group do to help and encourage you as you "GO" and pursue uncommon unity?
