

BIG Rocks

Love Others

INTRODUCTION

Loving others is often easier said than done. Yet the entire New Testament is pointing us toward demonstrating our love for God through loving others. Peter, Paul and even Jesus said Love is the very core of everything that matters. Following Jesus isn't complicated, but it is extremely demanding!

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What is the most powerful depiction you've seen of love outside of the Bible? (Consider works in music, film and literature)
2. What are some of the "little rocks of religion" that we sometimes make too important or more focus on more than the BIG Rocks?
3. Describe a church known by its active love and one known by its religion. What are the differences between the two churches? What do we need to focus on to be known by active love?
4. What types of people or groups do you find it easy to love and show love to? What groups is it more difficult, and why?
5. In the message Dave said, "Following Jesus isn't complicated, but it is extremely demanding." Have you experienced this is to be true in your life? If so, how?
6. What are some practical ways this Connect Group can show visible love to others? (Make a plan to follow through on one or two of these things in the next week or so.)
