

THIS IS A FOOTBALL

With so many denominations and opinions on what it means to be a Christian, it can be difficult to determine what is fundamental to the faith. In this series, we'll look at what's essential--and what's not--when it comes to following Jesus.

Today: Jesus is God's Son and our King!

Discussion Questions:

1. When you think of “The GOAT”, who comes to mind? What is it that makes them the greatest?
2. Is there anything related to faith that you once believed but no longer believe? Why?
3. Have you ever been tempted to walk away from faith completely? Partially? Temporarily? If so, why? If not, why not?
4. What doctrine of the Christian faith do you have the most difficulty accepting? Are you sure it's an essential?
5. Read Matthew 16:13–17. What observations do you have? Why do you think Matthew made it a point to capture this story?
6. Jesus is God's Son and our King. Would you put that first on your list of fundamental beliefs surrounding Christianity? If not, what would you put first? What would be next?
