Better Invitations

Invitations are really powerful. We love a good invitation but not all invites are the same. Some carry more weight and credibility than others. When inviting people to come to church or to come and see Jesus, how we live matters far more than what we say. When people are attracted to what they see in you, they are more likely to come see with you.

Discussion Questions

1. How did you end up attending Jenks Church? What drew you there?
2. What has been the most important aspect of being part of our church?
3. If Jesus modeled a “come and see” approach to evangelism, what kind of place does the church have to be for people to see Jesus when they come?
4. Jesus never made people feel like they were in His way or that He was too busy and He was always generous with no strings attached. Which of these areas do you need the most improvement? What is one tangible step to be better in that area?
5. Who is one person in your sphere of influence that you can invest in or invite to church? What is it about that person that makes it easy for you to connect with him or her?
6. What is one thing you can do this week to invest in that person? How can this group support you?
