

INVESTIGATING

HOW WE KNOW.
WHY WE FOLLOW.

INTRODUCTION

Christians are not expected to believe based solely on a collection of ancient manuscripts. The foundation of our faith is anchored to something far more substantial and sustainable.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Do you enjoy True Crime and/or problem solving? What about the information and evidence is most intriguing to you?
2. If you had to document the life of someone you know, who would it be and why? If you weren't allowed to use any technology other than writing, how would you convince people that your stories about that person were true?
3. As it relates to faith, have you ever experienced a season of doubt? If so, what exactly did you doubt and why?
4. In the message Dave mentioned four ways to test witnesses.
 - 1-Were they present?
 - 2-Can their testimony be verified?
 - 3-Are the accounts consistent and well-preserved?
 - 4-Are the witnesses unbiased?What information stands out to you regarding the gospels as tested through these questions?
5. What's your initial response to the suggestion that the Christian faith rises or falls on the reliability of the Gospels rather than the reliability of the entire Bible?
