Better Obedience

God will bless you more than you can bless yourself if you'll give Him the opportunity. When you do whatever He tells you, miracles can happen.

Discussion Questions:

1. Growing up, were you a rule-follower or a rule-breaker? Has that changed as you've gotten older?
2. Do you believe God still does miracles? Why or why not?
3. If you believe God still does miracles, and obedience is the key to a miracle, then why do so many Christians struggle to simply do whatever Jesus tells them to do?
4. In the message, Dave said, "Obedience is measurable." How have you seen this to be true in everyday life and in your spiritual life?
5. Have there been times in your life that were more exciting and fulfilling because of your obedience to God?
6. God will bless you more than you can bless yourself if you give him the opportunity. What "next steps" of obedience can you take this week that will give Him the opportunity to bless you with a miracle?
