FIND, TELL, BRING

John 3:16

For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.

A hand in the foreground points towards a cityscape at night. The city is illuminated with lights, and several location pins are scattered across the scene. The overall tone is dark and atmospheric.

You are more loved than you ever dreamed.

John 1:40-42

Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard what John had said and who had followed Jesus. The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, "We have found the Messiah" (that is, the Christ). And he brought him to Jesus.

A hand is shown pointing at a city map. The map is overlaid with several location pins. The background is a dark, blurred cityscape at night. The text is white and bold, centered on the map.
