

Get Dressed 21 Day Devotional — Dress for Success — Day 6

1 Samuel 16:7 (NIV)

"But the Lord said to Samuel, 'Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The Lord does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart.'"

Introduction:

In a world often obsessed with outward appearances and achievements, it's essential to understand what true success means in the eyes of the Lord. 1 Samuel 16:7 reminds us that God values what's inside our hearts more than external factors.

Reflection:

God's Perspective:

- This verse is a reminder that God's perspective is vastly different from ours. People tend to judge by outward appearances, but God sees the heart.
- Consider a time when you judged someone or yourself primarily based on appearances. How does this verse challenge that perspective?

Heart Matters:

- God's focus on the heart indicates that character, intentions, and attitudes are of utmost importance to Him.
- Reflect on the state of your own heart. Are there areas where you need to seek God's transformation and alignment with His will?

Success in God's Eyes:

- True success, as seen from God's perspective, is about cultivating a heart that loves Him and seeks to follow His ways.
- Think about your own goals and pursuits. How can you align them with God's definition of success?

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, help me to remember that true success is not determined by what I see but by the condition of my heart. May I focus on cultivating a heart that is pleasing to You, filled with love, compassion, and a desire to follow Your ways. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Closing:

As you go about your day, remember that success, as defined by the world, can be fleeting and superficial. True and lasting success is found when our hearts align with God's will, reflecting His love and grace in all we do.
