

Get Dressed 21 Day Devotional — Day 7 — Robe of Love

John 13:34-35

“So, I give you now a new commandment: Love each other just as much as I have loved you. For when you demonstrate the same love I have for you by loving one another, everyone will know that you’re my true followers.”

Introduction:

In a world often marked by division and conflict, the seamless robe of love that Jesus calls us to wear sets us apart as His disciples. Let's explore the profound message of John 13:34-35 and the impact of love in our lives.

Reflection:

A New Command:

- Jesus gives us a new commandment: to love one another. This love is to be the hallmark of His followers.
- Consider the significance of this commandment. How is it different from other commandments in the Bible?

Love Modeled After Christ:

- We are called to love as Jesus loved us. His love was selfless, sacrificial, and unconditional.
- Reflect on how you can model your love for others after the way Jesus loves you.

Identifying Marks of Discipleship:

- Jesus states that our love for one another is how people will recognize us as His disciples.
- How does your love for others reflect your identity as a follower of Christ? In what ways can you show love more effectively?

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the commandment to love one another, modeled after the love of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Help us to love in a way that sets us apart as His disciples. May our love be a powerful testimony of Your grace and presence in our lives. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Closing:

As you go about your day, remember that love is not just a feeling but an action. It's the seamless robe that should clothe every believer. By loving others as Christ loved us, we become a shining example of His grace and a beacon of hope in a world that desperately needs His love.
