

Advance to the Manger — Day 13

Advance in Truth

Luke 2:13-14 TPT

“Then all at once in the night sky, a vast number of glorious angels appeared, the very armies of heaven! And they all praised God, singing: “Glory to God in the highest realms of heaven! For there is peace and a good hope given to the sons of men.”

Introduction:

- Read Scripture: Luke 2:13-14
- Meditate on the angelic chorus praising God
- Have a mouth full of praise and worship during this Christmas season.

The birth of Jesus Christ was not an ordinary event. It was a momentous occasion that sparked an stellar worship team of warriors to praise and worship. In Luke 2:13-14, we find the angelic proclamation to the shepherds, revealing the joyous news of the Savior's birth. Today, let us reflect on these verses and discover the profound lessons we can learn as we advance to the manger through the stellar warriors of worship.

Heart Reflection

Supernatural Encounters

Imagine the scene: shepherds tending their flock in the quiet of the night, when suddenly the sky is filled with a multitude of angels. The heavenly host, in all their splendor and glory, appeared to announce the birth of the Messiah. This extraordinary sight must have filled the shepherds with awe and wonder. In that moment, they were given a glimpse of the heavenly realm, a taste of the majesty and grandeur of God's presence. As we advance to the manger, let us open our hearts to the supernatural encounters God has prepared for us. Let us seek moments of divine revelation and allow ourselves to be captivated by the glory of God.

Proclamation of Truth

The heavenly chorus proclaimed, "Glory to God in the highest heaven." Their praise echoed through the heavens, resounding with adoration and worship. The birth of Jesus brought glory to God, for it marked the fulfillment of His salvation plan for humanity. Through Jesus, peace was made available to all who would believe. The heavenly chorus not only proclaimed peace but also revealed that this peace is bestowed upon those on whom God's favor rests. As we advance to the manger, let us recognize that true peace can only be found in Jesus Christ. Let us seek His favor, surrendering our lives to Him, and experiencing the peace that surpasses all understanding.

Call To Action

- Embrace the Supernatural:
 - Just as the shepherds encountered the heavenly host, we too can experience supernatural encounters with God.
 - Be open to God's presence and seek moments of divine revelation in your life.
 - Allow yourself to be captivated by His glory and awestruck by His majesty.

- Proclaim His Glory:
 - Like the heavenly chorus, let us join in the proclamation of God's glory.
 - Through our words and actions, let us magnify and exalt His name.
 - May our lives reflect the awe and wonder of who He is and what He has done.

- Seek True Peace:
 - The birth of Jesus brings peace to all who believe.
 - In a world filled with chaos and turmoil, let us find our peace in Him.
 - Surrender your worries, anxieties, and fears to Jesus, and allow His peace to guard your heart and mind.

Take A Way

As we advance to the manger through worship, let us be reminded of the profound lessons embedded in this story. God works through supernatural encounters in our lives, fulfilling His purposes in ways we may not understand. He calls us to share and give thanks in the journey, trusting His guidance and provision. And He meets us in our our everyday lives, bringing hope and salvation through His Son, Jesus Christ.

Take a moment to reflect on the awesomeness of Jesus' birth and the lessons it teaches us. Consider how you can expect supernatural encounters and give praise in your own journey of faith for these signs and wonders. Thank God for His presence and ask Him to help you proclaim true peace as you advance to the manger with a praise filled heart.

Prayer:

Oh Lord,
we thank You for the stellar worshipers that proclaimed the birth of Jesus. Open our hearts to supernatural encounters with You. Help us to proclaim Your glory and worship You with awe and wonder. May we find true peace in Jesus, knowing that His favor rests upon us. In His name, we pray. Amen.
