Stewardship Minute

by Mike Reed

On Wednesday, I looked out on a glistening winter wonderland, but this was a false beauty. The ice buildup was weighing down the trees. Outside, I could hear them crack and I saw the fallen limbs of those unable to withstand the stress. I hoped the warmth of the sun would soon decrease the burden. Ice is only temporary, but Jesus is constant. My prayer is that we will offer our burdens to the warmth of the Son. He is ready, willing, and able to relieve your stress. "Jesus, I cast my cares upon you." Matthew 11:28-30 "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."
