Evening Prayer in Advent

Our Advent worship relies on scripture, stillness, and song – we hear and rest in God's promises, and we sing. Songs have a way of finding us in the dark, giving words to our prayer, and helping the words of God's promise move from our heads to our hearts.

GATHERING

November 19

This season of Advent touches many of our emotions.

Sometimes we are terrified and overwhelmed with fear.

“Do not be afraid. Your prayer has been heard.”

Joy and gladness will come to us.

The Holy Spirit will fill our hearts.

And we will all share tidings of comfort and joy.

December 3

This season of Advent touches many of our emotions.

Sometimes we are confused, unsure of what is happening in our lives.

“Do not be afraid. The child is from the Holy Spirit.”

God is with us.

The child shall be called Emmanuel.

And we will all share tidings of comfort and joy.

December 10

This season of Advent touches many of our emotions.

Sometimes we doubt and fail to trust God.

“Do not be afraid. You have found favor with God.”

Nothing is impossible with God.

Let it be with us according to your word.

And we will all share tidings of comfort and joy.

December 17

This season of Advent touches many of our emotions.

Sometimes we are curious about what the future holds.

“Do not be afraid. I am bringing you good news of great joy.”

Let us go to Bethlehem to see this thing that has taken place.

Let us make known what has been told to us about this child.

And we will all share tidings of comfort and joy.

SONG

Lumière de Dieu Come, Light of God

The musical score is written for two staves, treble and bass clef, in a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first line of music corresponds to the first line of lyrics, and the second line of music corresponds to the second line of lyrics. The score ends with a double bar line.

THANKSGIVING FOR DARKNESS AND LIGHT

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give you thanks, O God,
for in the beginning you created light and darkness, day, and night,
and you set the sun, moon, and stars in the sky to govern night and day.
In a pillar of fire by night and a pillar of cloud by day you led your people into freedom.
Lead us in the darkness and the light by the presence of Christ, your Word.
May your Spirit be a safe cover of darkness, like the darkness of rich soil sprouting seeds, or the womb that cradles new hope.
May the Incarnate One be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path;
For you are merciful, and you love your whole creation,
And with all your creatures we give you glory,
through your Son Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

THE ADVENT WREATH IS LIT

As we sing, the Advent wreath is lit.

GREETING AND PRAYER

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

November 19

O God who brings comfort and joy, when fear overwhelms us and we cannot see a way out, speak to our fear. Calm our troubled hearts and provide peace in our fearful world. In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

December 3

O God who brings comfort and joy, when the world baffles us with conflicting messages and puzzling events, speak to our confusion. Comfort us with the knowledge that you are with us in times of clarity and times of confusion. In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

December 10

O God who brings comfort and joy, when our faith waivers and we question your word, speak to our doubt. Comfort us with your promises and renew our trust in you. In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

December 17

O God who brings comfort and joy, when we wait with anticipation of what will come, speak to our curiosity. Comfort us with your surprises and give us hearts that are thankful for all that you provide. In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

PRAYERS

During these weeks of waiting and expecting, where people live in fear of the unknown, we pray for peace.

silence

Where people are confused about your will for their lives or for the world, we pray for clarity.

silence

Where people doubt your presence and your word,
we pray for trust.

silence

Where people are curious, and await the future with hopeful anticipation, we pray for wonder.

silence

Most of all, when the world longs for you,
we pray you help us respond with glad tidings of comfort and joy.

silence

We pray all this in the name of Jesus, our long-expected Savior.

Amen.

Our prayers continue as we sing, and come forward to light a candle. The flicker of the flames reminds us of how brief our time is, and the growing brightness reminds us that God's endless mercy breaks into even the deepest shadows in our world.

Silence

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work or watch or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, comfort the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love's sake.

Amen.

BLESSING

The peace of God accompany your waiting,
the light of ✠ Christ warm your hearts,
and the joy of the Spirit fill you with hope.

Amen.

Comfort and Joy

The holiday season can stir deep emotions within each of us. Many children greet the advent of Christmas with joy and excitement, whereas those who have lost loved ones during the past year may find great sadness in the very same event. Thankfully, our God meets us wherever we are, both physically and emotionally. This Advent we'll give voice to the complex situations and emotions with which we greet the coming Messiah, reflecting on the reactions of those who first received the news of Jesus' birth (Zechariah, Joseph, Mary, and the shepherds). We are no strangers to fear, confusion, doubt, and curiosity - and in the midst of it all, the coming of Jesus promises comfort and joy for all of us.
