

Fresh Air - The Love of God

Text: Romans 5:6–11

Topic(s): Gospel, Love, Compassion, Healthy Boundaries, Christian Living, Christian Community

Big Idea of the Message: The world bombards us with differing opinions on what love looks like, but in the gospel we find that God’s love frees and transforms us so we can love even the “unlovable” in the same way Christ showed his love to us.

Application Point: The gospel shows us that true love requires sacrifice of self, but it doesn’t have to drain us to the point that we have nothing left to give.

Discussion Questions:

1. What is one thing that stood out to you from this Passage?
2. In today’s lesson we learned that God’s love is meant to transform us, but the process isn’t always easy. What is an area in your life that God is lovingly trying to transform so you can better love others?
3. How does knowing that God loves you at your weakest and most unlovable moments encourage you today?
4. How does seeing God’s love expressed through Christ in the gospel and in your own life encourage you to show the same kind of love to others who may not see the world the same way you do?

H -What do you highlight from this scripture?

E - Explain - what does this verse mean?

A - How can I Apply this verse to my life?

R - Respond to what God is teaching your through prayer.
