

Summary

The sermon focuses on the concept of true belief in Christ, emphasizing that being a believer is more than just a one-time decision - it's a lifelong commitment. Pastor Chris discusses three key commitments of a believer's life: redemption through Christ's blood, righteousness through holy living, and the reward awaiting believers in heaven. He stresses that true salvation involves not just wanting Jesus as Savior, but accepting Him as Lord of one's life.

Intro Prayer

Heavenly Father, as we gather to discuss Your Word, we ask that You open our hearts and minds to understand what it truly means to be a believer in Christ. Help us to be honest with ourselves and each other as we examine our faith and commitment to You. Guide our discussion and help us grow closer to You through it. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Ice Breaker

What's the most meaningful promise someone has ever made to you, and did they keep it?

Key Verses

- John 3:36
- John 14:6
- Romans 10:9
- Hebrews 12:14
- 1 Peter 1:18-19

Questions

- What does it mean to truly 'believe' in Jesus beyond just mental acknowledgment?
- How would you explain the difference between wanting Jesus as Savior versus accepting Him as Lord?
- The sermon mentions that 'salvation didn't come cheap.' What does this mean to you personally?
- How does understanding Christ's righteousness change how we view our own attempts at being 'good enough'?
- What role should holiness play in the life of a believer?
- How can we maintain our faith and commitment when facing opposition or challenges?

- What does it mean to live with 'eternity in view'?
- How should the promise of heaven impact our daily lives and decisions?

Life Application

This week, identify one area of your life where you've been holding back from fully surrendering to Christ's lordship. Make a specific plan to submit that area to Him and share your commitment with an accountability partner.

Key Takeaways

- True belief in Christ is more than a one-time decision - it's a daily commitment
- Salvation requires both accepting Jesus as Savior and submitting to Him as Lord
- Living a holy life is not optional but essential for believers
- God never forgets our faithfulness and will reward it in His time
- The believer's ultimate reward is eternal life in heaven with Christ

Ending Prayer

Lord Jesus, thank You for the price You paid for our redemption. Help us to live lives worthy of that sacrifice, pursuing holiness and righteousness through Your strength. May we never take our salvation for granted but live each day in anticipation of our eternal reward with You. Give us courage to fully submit to Your lordship in every area of our lives. In Your precious name we pray, Amen.
