

When We Don't Know What to Do

April 26, 2020

Scriptures: Matthew 6:9-13, Isaiah 26:3; Acts 1:14

Bottom Line: We are never insignificant if all we do is pray

Living Without a Playbook

None of us have experienced life in a pandemic before. But, regardless of what's going on, God's people are called to pray as a first response.

"This is How You Should Pray"

Our Father in heaven . . .

- Spend time with your Father, bring Him into your day, listen for His voice

May Your name be holy . . .

- Bring glory to God above all else

Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven . . .

- Heal our community by listening, meeting needs, and showing people what God's Kingdom is about

Give us this day our daily bread . . .

- Trust that God will provide for our needs, and reflect on how He has

Lead us not into temptation, deliver us from evil . . .

- The enemy wants you to be afraid, and to see others as threats to your safety. Instead, commit to seeing and treating others as people that God loves.

LISTENING

Check in with everyone, see how the week has been. Give each person your attention, engage with what they're saying. If you're having trouble talking about your week, here are some things to talk about

- What fears have you had this week?
- How did you overreact this week?
- How have you experienced God's goodness this week?
- What/who are you praying for this week?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Review Sunday's message. What stood out to you? What challenged you? Are there any lingering questions?
2. Do you have a favourite verse or Scripture passage during this season?
3. What do you have to be thankful for?
4. How has someone cared or encouraged you recently?
5. How can we help others practically during this time?
