

Only One: 3 John 1-8

August 2, 2020

Scriptures: 3 John 1-8; John 14

Bottom Line: Hospitality gives others a chance to experience the gospel

The Background of 3 John

John is writing to Gaius, a specific member of a home church in the network near Ephesus where he sent his first two letters.

John commends Gaius for the way he is walking out the truth as a follower of Jesus. He also encourages Gaius to be hospitable to the people John is who preach the real gospel.

Hospitality is a Reflection of the Gospel

V. 1-8 - When we show hospitality to the people around us, we have an opportunity to show them what the gospel looks like. This is true whether we're showing hospitality to people who believe in Jesus or people who do not.

LISTENING

Check in with everyone, see how the week has been. Give each person your attention, engage with what they're saying. If you're having trouble talking about your week, here are some things to talk about

- What fears have you had this week?
- How did you overreact this week?
- How have you experienced God's goodness this week?
- What/who are you praying for this week?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you from the teaching? Were there any new ideas? What challenged you? Do you have any lingering questions?
2. How have you experienced hospitality? What did that experience do for you? What did you walk away with?
3. How can you be hospitable to the different people in your life? Believers? Non-believers?
4. What does representing the gospel look for you? Where are you strong in this? Where do you need to grow?
