

All In: Strike the Arrow

Feb. 10, 2019

Scriptures: 2 Kings 13:14-20; Philippians 3:7-14

Bottom Line: What we do in this life lives on for eternity

The “Do Over” Mentality

“Time seduces us into believing that we’ll get another chance; that we can wait until tomorrow to do the things we should have done today.”

The subtlety of regret

Eternal Mindset

Living for Eternity

2 Kings 13:14-20

1. God's arrow and the arrow I hold
2. Half-hearted living — keep striking the arrow

Philippians 3:7-14

1. This life will rob us of true life
2. The perspective of eternity
3. Reward or regret

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Appetizer

1. Review Sunday's message. What stood out to you? What challenged you? Are there any lingering questions?
2. Have you ever wanted a mulligan or do-over? Did you get it? What happened?

Entree

1. Read Philippians 1:12-26
2. Paul is All In, to the point that he can't choose whether he would rather live or die, because death means being with Jesus, but life means helping the Church. Where are you trying to live with this kind of intention and intensity?
3. Where is God calling you to "strike the arrow," and claim a greater victory than what you're settling for?

Dessert

Break into groups of 3-5 and discuss the following questions with each other.

1. Where in your life are you tempted to live with a "do over" mentality: where you are checking out because you'll get another shot at it?
2. What would be one thing you could do or one change you could make this week to remove regrets and live with eternity in mind?
