

Younique: For Such a Time as This

December 22, 2019

Scriptures: Esther 3:13-15, 4:11-17

Bottom Line: God's calling for us is clarified through the voices of those around us, and will sometimes mean standing against the dark.

God's General Calling For Humanity

Being made in the image of God means that we have been called to rule the world like He would: creating more goodness and beauty, with all the love and care that He has for His creation.

The Story of Esther - Calling Clarified

1. God's calling is clarified through the voices of the people around us.

How Esther lives out her calling in her situation is made clear through the guidance of Mordecai.

2. Sometimes, creating good means standing up to bad.

Esther and Mordecai's calling is clarified by the evil they encountered in their world.

LISTENING

Have someone in your group answer one (or more) of these questions:

- What is your biggest fear?
- What is one regret you have in your life?
- How have you experienced God's goodness in a tangible way?

After they share, tell them what you heard.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Review Sunday's message. What stood out to you? What challenged you? Are there any lingering questions?
2. What do you think about the idea of a calling? Have you "found" yours?
3. How does the knowledge that you were created to rule the world with God change the way you think of yourself and your life?
4. How have others spoken into your life to share God's purposes for you?

HUDDLE UP

Break into groups of 3-5 and discuss the following questions together.

1. How has God positioned you to address something wrong in the world?
2. Spend some listening to God. What words of encouragement or direction does He have for the people around you?
