

A Beautiful Mess: Week 13

August 25, 2019

Scriptures: 1 Corinthians 15

Bottom Line: The resurrection shows us that God isn't abandoning this world for the next.

To show our community and culture who God and the Church really are, we need to let the gospel change how we do things.

1 Corinthians 15

Verses 1-9: The resurrection is the centerpiece of the gospel.

Verses 12-19: Some Corinthians follow the Greeks and disbelieve a physical resurrection. Paul responds that, if you give up the resurrection, you give up the gospel.

Verses 20-28: Jesus institutes a new humanity, and He will defeat corrupt spiritual powers and corrupt human institutions.

Verses 35-50: Our new bodies will be similar, but different.

Take-Aways

We Need to Live Out God's Commitment to His Creation

We Need to Take Physical Death Seriously

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Appetizer

1. Review Sunday's message. What stood out to you? What challenged you? Are there any lingering questions?

Entree

1. How would you explain the gospel? What would you say is the main message?
2. What do you think of a physical resurrection? What does that mean for what heaven will be like?
3. What ways can you think of for the Church to show people that God is committed to His creation?
4. Have you experienced the death of a loved one, or walked beside someone who has? How did you comfort them? How would you do it differently?

Dessert

Break into groups of 3-5 and discuss the following questions together.

1. What can you do to personalize God's commitment to creation? What steps can you take this week?
2. In what other ways should the Church change how it operates to show people a more accurate picture of who God is?
