

A Beautiful Mess: Week 2

May 12, 2019

Scriptures: 1 Cor. 1:18-31

Bottom Line: We will build unity in the church, and trust outside of it, by growing in humility and learning to accept those who are different than us.

Levels of Conversation

Where are you at? Do you get to “level 1”?

If our mission is to lead people to Jesus, we need ot have these spiritual conversations.

Conversation Killers

1. Creating boxes for people

- Instead, listen for common ground
- Can we be safe? Can we withhold judgment, knowing that we're all spiritual travellers?

2. Being Arrogant

- Instead, remember who you are and where you've come from
- Are we supposed to wait for people to be like us before walking with them? Is that the way of Jesus, friend of sinners?

Next Steps

- Get out of your box; encounter different people
- Listening Challenge: See how long you can actively listen in your conversations in order to understand the other person

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Appetizer

1. Review Sunday's message. What stood out to you? What challenged you? Are there any lingering questions?
2. What is the best "level 1" conversation you've had (that you can think of)?

Entree

1. What level of conversation do you typically stay at in your relationships?
2. Do you have people in your life that you can go to "level one" with? Why is it easier to be real with them?
3. Why do you think we have so many "camps" of Christians? Is that okay? What challenges do you see this bringing into the Church? What strengths does this diversity produce?

Dessert

Break into groups of 3-5 and discuss the following questions together.

1. What steps could you take (personally or as a group) to encourage greater unity among believers?
2. What could you be doing (personally or as a group) to build stronger relationships with those who don't follow Jesus?
