FOUR

MEMORY VERSE

There will be enough goats' milk for your food, for the food of your household and maintenance for your girls.

Proverbs 27:27

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

- When have you experienced God's provision in a profound way?
- Take a moment to think through what you are called to shepherd. In what areas are you strongest? Weakest? What would you like to change about how you shepherd?
- How do you articulate the differences between an owner and a steward? How does knowing that our kingdom won't last forever change the way you approach your oversight of the various roles in your life?
- What challenges your contentment and confidence in what you have and how you view the future?
- In light of what you have been learning about generosity, being a blessing to others, and now, having a confident faith about there being enough for you and your household, how does that inform or challenge your approach to giving?
