

Discussion Questions

INTRODUCTION

Do you have faith to move mountains? Jesus challenged his followers to believe for the impossible. What are the qualities of mountain moving faith and how far away are we from doing what we might consider impossible?

GETTING STARTED

1. How far away do you feel from having mountain moving faith? (a) I'm far away, (b) almost there, (c) I have it!
2. Have you ever had a person challenge you to have more faith? What did they sound like? How did you feel after?

BIBLE IDEA

3. Read Matthew 17:14-20. The disciples learned a lesson in faith through their failure to have faith. Have you had a time when you felt that faith failed you? What does this passage teach you about how to respond?
4. Do you, today, have a mustard seed of faith? Why or why not? How do you know?
5. Sean said that its not the amount of faith but the object of faith that matters. What does it look like for you to focus your faith on the right object?

NEXT STEPS

6. What do you feel God is asking you to do now? If you are unsure, answer based on your best available knowledge. How is that challenging to you? What reasons do you have to be confident in believing?
7. What step of obedience can you take to allow faith to change you?

Mountain Moving Faith Rethinking Impossible #2

Matthew 17:1-3

"Six days later Jesus *took with Him Peter and James and John his brother, and *led them up on a high mountain by themselves. 2 And He was transfigured before them; and His face shone like the sun, and His garments became as white as light. 3 And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him"

Matthew 17:14-20, Hebrews 11:1-3, Mark 9:22-24

It is the _____ of your faith, not the _____, that moves mountains.

A. Mountain moving faith is focused on _____.

Hebrews 11:6

B. Mountain moving faith listens for _____.

1 John 5:14-15

C. Mountain moving faith requires a response of _____.

James 2:14-18