

Discussion Questions

INTRODUCTION

What if God is planning to use a unique event in your life to help make your faith bigger & stronger? Are you ready?

GETTING STARTED

1. Share about a time when you knew you were supposed to do something big. How did you know what to do? What obstacles did you overcome? Who was affected by your decision? What was the outcome?

BIBLE IDEA

2. Read Isaiah 6:1-8. Was Isaiah's response to God's holiness proper? Why or why not? Why do you think Isaiah accepted God's assignment? What principles could you apply today?
3. Focus on Isaiah 6:1. What were some of the similarities between the time of King Uzziah and today? Discuss how a follower of Jesus might navigate their faith in a changing and dark culture.
4. Read Hebrews 13:8, James 1:17 & Daniel 7:14. What do these passages have in common? What strength do you gain, knowing God will not change in... His opinion of you... His willingness to embrace all people... His plan of salvation... His strategy for the future... His foundational character of love & holiness... and His love for the church?
5. Read Ephesians 2:8-10. As a result of being given the gift of salvation, how might you respond to God? How does knowing you are "God's masterpiece" (NLT) help you discover and carry out God's call in a corrupt culture?
6. Read Esther 4:14. Esther was placed in a position of leadership at just the right time to save her people; what do you believe the Lord is calling you to do right now?

NEXT STEPS

7. How is God preparing you for your next assignment? Are there specific experiences from which you are drawing direction? What's holding you back? What gifts has He given you? What will you do to take the next step?
