INTRODUCTION

Financial freedom is a result of wise financial decisions. You don't need a financial degree to prosper, but you do need to make wise choices. This message will identify six wise financial behaviors that will lead to radical financial freedom.

GETTING STARTED

1. Name one financial principle you learned growing up.
2. Do you consider yourself a wise financial manager? Why or why not?

BIBLE IDEA

3. Sean described six wise financial behaviors. Which one are you doing well? Which behavior is lacking?
4. Apply Proverbs 21:20 to yourself. Are you living wise or foolish, why?
5. Was there a time in your life when you were saving? What helped you to be successful? How do you know when you've saved enough?
6. Sean introduced a formula of 10/10/80. Do you agree with this budgeting approach? Why or why not?

NEXT STEPS

7. Envision your life one year from now after making wiser financial decisions. What is the current state of your finances?
8. Think of the smallest step you can make in a positive financial direction...what would it be? When could you have this done?
