

4-CHAIR DISCIPLESHIP

“Come and See”

Made for Mission

Love and Obedience (John 14:15, 21, 23-24, 31)

The true mark of M_____ in my life is actual, daily, growing obedience to His commands.

And what ARE His commands?

- Love God—Mark 12:30
- Love People (Love One Another)—Mark 12:31; John 15:12
- Make Disciples of all Nations—Matthew 28:19-20

Thus, the M_____ for my life is love (Love God, Love People). The M_____ is to become a disciple who makes disciples (Make Disciples of all Nations).

What is the “mission” of your life right now?

Invitation #1 — “Come and See” (John 1:35-39; 46; 2:11)

How Do I Reach a Neighbor?

Who’s Your One?

- Think through your spheres of influence: work, neighborhood, school, family/friends, activity groups.
- Pick at least one name that you will begin to work hard and pray hard for their salvation

Commit to a Prayer-Care-Share lifestyle

Be Prepared to Share (1 Peter 3:15)

It Can’t Grow if You Don’t Sow

Adopt an “Invest and Invite” mindset (John 1:46)

Be Patient

A Word to Seekers

CONCLUSION (Matthew 9:35-38)

Questions for Personal Reflection/Group Discussion

1. What is your “mission” in life right now? Be really honest about this.
2. When you remember that the true Christian maturity is marked by how much you love God through obedience to His commands, love others with a sacrificial love, and are making disciples, starting by pursuing the spiritually lost around you... how are you doing?
3. Who’s your one? How are you seeking to live a prayer-care-share lifestyle with them right now? In what ways can you do so even more?
