Musical presentation of Pilgrim's Progress next Sunday night

The Pilgrim's Progress been a favorite for generations. Originally published in 1678, John Bunyan wrote this classic from his Bedford, England jail where he was imprisoned for preaching the Gospel. It is the most noted allegory ever told and beautifully expresses—in a simple and relevant fashion—the process of coming to faith in Jesus Christ and the journey of the believer. Join troubadours Jim Winder and Scott Kleber next Sunday, October 19 at 6:30 p.m. as they present this storytelling concert, Journey to the Celestial City, with original songs that were inspired by the most poignant chapters of the story. Come along with Christian on his journey from the City of Destruction to the Celestial City. Just as compelling today as it was when the passionate preacher put quill to parchment, this is a journey you, your family and your friends won't want to miss!
