After-church luncheon Next Week

Grace BFC's next Sunday morning after-church luncheon is set for next Sunday, March 17. The food theme is "bring something green." We ask our people to bring a main dish and a side dish or dessert to share with others. We will also hold a men's dessert competition – so men, bring a dessert that you made and that you think tastes great!

Sunday School Classes starting on March 17

Class 1 (Room 113-115) - Part 1: 3/17 to 4/28; Part 2: 5/5 to 6/2.

Part One: From Passover to the Lord's Table (Duane Moyer). Jesus' last Passover meal with his disciples was a Seder like they had never celebrated before. What would they have remembered, and what can we learn as we look at the Lord's Table from their perspective?

Part Two: How to live a Christian Life: Studies in Romans 12 (Jim Roberts). In the early years following Christ's ascension, believers in Jesus were referred to as followers of "the Way." We will look at what Romans 12 has to say about presenting our minds and bodies as "living sacrifices".

Class 2 (Overflow) 3/17 to 6/2.

Tips for being a bad leader: Studies in the book of Judges (Bryan Maier). We hear a lot these days about what constitutes a good leader. In this class we will be looking at the book of Judges to see how those in leadership during Israel's early years often left us with a template of what NOT to do.

Women's Conference volunteers needed

The Quakertown Women's Conference will be here at Grace BFC on May 17-18. The theme is "A Woman's Wisdom: How the Book of Proverbs Speaks to Everything." We are going to hold a volunteers' meeting on Tuesday, March 26 at 7 p.m. for everyone who wishes to serve. We need men to volunteer in parking and in the kitchen so our women can attend. See the signup sheet.

Book sale thank you!

Joetta Moyer thanks everyone who donated or purchased books for the Harrisburg BFC Book Sale. The $452 we collected will be used to provide scholarships for French pastors through Grace BFC-Harrisburg's initiative.
