Confession of sin: from Romans 3:11-18,23
 Lord, We confess we have all sinned and fallen short of your Glory. None of us, by our strength, do good, not even one of us. We have sinned in the way that we speak, we have murdered by the anger in our hearts toward others. We have often not feared you as we should, sought you out, or placed you first in our lives. Apart from you, none of us is righteous. Not one of us. By the work of Jesus, we ask for forgiveness for our many sins.

Assurance of pardon: from 1 John 1:9, Romans 3:22,24
 Lord, we have confessed our sins, You are faithful and just to forgive us our sins. You cleanse us from all unrighteousness. You are our righteousness as we believe in what Christ did on the cross. Through that great work, we are justified by Your Grace. Only through You do we find redemption. We thank you and praise your Name Forever.
