Confession of sin: Psalm 51:1-4

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love;
according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.
Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin!
For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.
Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment.

Assurance of pardon: (From Romans 10:9, 1 Peter 2:24)

If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed!

Passing the offering plate

We will be returning to receiving tithes and offerings by passing the offering plate today. We don't want to discourage anyone who is utilizing online giving or is giving on a monthly or semi-weekly basis; we just want to illustrate how giving is a part of our worship. If you would be willing to assist in collecting tithes and offerings on a regular basis, please contact one of the deacons.

AED training session today following worship

Grace BFC will hold an AED defibrillator training session today after the morning worship service. An AED (Automated External Defibrillator) is an apparatus used to help those who are experiencing sudden cardiac arrest. Our teacher will be Jake LaForet, Battalion Chief with the Upper Perkiomen Valley Ambulance Station 369; he is an instructor with the American Heart Association for CPR, AED, and first aid. The class will run about a half-hour and will include how to use the AED and how to administer CPR.

Memorial service for Gail Snyder

Gail Snyder was a regular attender at Grace who died during COVID. Her family is planning a memorial celebration for Gail from 1-5 p.m. today at Highland Park in Sellersville. All are welcome to attend. At 3 p.m., a tree will be planted in her memory at Highland Park.

Hymn sing June 11

We will host a hymn sing on Sunday, June 11 at 6:30 p.m. On that night we will gather to sing God's praises with a mixture of old favorites and new songs that we have been learning as a congregation, interspersed with the reading of Scripture. Please plan on joining us as we worship in song.
