Adapted Bible study information session – January 17

This is an open invitation to our Grace BFC family and community to meet with Bethsaida trainer Felicia Grandinette in preparation for the upcoming start of our ministry to those with disabilities. On Saturday, Jan. 17 from 9-11 a.m., Felicia will join us to introduce Grace to the Bible study program for adults who are experiencing special needs and to explain the adaptive Bible study program that will be held starting Jan. 18, 2026 at Grace. Light refreshments will be served in the overflow. This is an excellent opportunity to learn how Grace BFC will be equipped to disciple those with different learning styles, to encourage the team, and to understand the techniques and strategies that make God's Word accessible to people of ALL abilities. Learn how you can pray for this new ministry and meet some participants of "the gang" who are already part of an adapted Bible study. Please sign up on the bulletin board or contact Terri Bohrer directly.

Jon & Mellisa Eager Missionary Visit – January 18

Dr. Jon & Melissa Eager, who have served among the Sandawe people group in Tanzania, East Africa and have been part of our missions family for several years, will join us on Sunday, Jan. 18 at 6 p.m. to present an update on their ministry. A light dinner will be served – provided by the Missions Committee. See the signup sheet in the entryway.
