Something Is About to Happen

Champion Church · Small Group Discussion Guide

THIS WEEK'S THEME

You can feel it sometimes—that restlessness, that sense something is shifting. You might call it anxiety. You might dismiss it as stress. But what if it's actually spiritual awareness? What if God is stirring in your life and you're picking up on His movement? This is a safe place to explore that. The crowd at the triumphal entry couldn't explain what was happening, but they knew something was different. They responded to an expectation they couldn't fully articulate. They moved with their whole hearts. This week, we're asking you to pay attention to what God might be stirring in your own life—and to consider how you might respond with faith, even before you understand the full picture. You're not alone in this. We're in this together as a family, supporting each other.

Point 1: Recognize the Stirring

The crowd felt something before they understood it.

SCRIPTURE

Luke 19:37-38 (NLT)

When he reached the place where the road started down the Mount of Olives, all of his followers began to shout and sing as they walked along, praising God for all the wonderful miracles they had seen. 'Blessings on the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in highest heaven!'

Habakkuk 2:3 (NIV)

For the revelation awaits an appointed time; it speaks of the end and will not prove false. Though it linger, wait for it; it will certainly come and will not delay.

1 Kings 19:11-12 (NIV)

The Lord said, 'Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by.' Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake came a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper.

DISCUSSION

Take a moment and share with your group: When you think about spiritual stirring—that sense that God is about to move—how do you typically respond? What do you feel in your heart, and what might be the difference between anxiety about the future and holy expectation? We're all in this together.

Point 2: Respond Before You Understand

Faith moves first; understanding follows.

SCRIPTURE

Luke 19:39-40 (NLT)

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said, 'Teacher, rebuke your followers for what they're saying!' He replied, 'If they kept quiet, the stones along the road would burst into cheers!'

Hebrews 11:8 (NIV)

By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going.

2 Corinthians 5:7 (NIV)

For we live by faith, not by sight.

DISCUSSION

Tell your group about a time when you acted in faith before you fully understood what God was doing. How did that experience change your perspective on trust? What did you learn about God's faithfulness?

Point 3: Position Yourself for What's Next

Readiness is more than waiting—it's active preparation with a loving heart.

SCRIPTURE

Romans 8:19 (NLT)

For all creation is waiting eagerly for that future day when God will reveal who his children really are.

Acts 3:19-20 (NLT)

Repent of your sins and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped away. Then times of refreshment will come from the presence of the Lord, and he will again send you Jesus, your appointed Messiah.

Isaiah 43:19 (NIV)

See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.

DISCUSSION

Share with your group: What does it practically look like for you to position yourself for what God is about to do? How might prayer, expectation, or opening your heart be different from just passive waiting?

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Take a quiet moment in the privacy of your own heart and reflect on this: How am I sensing God stirring in my life right now, and what is He inviting me to trust Him with?
