

Week #1: Why Should The Local Church Care About Global Missions?

Have you ever considered working overseas as a missionary?

If you had the opportunity, where in the world would you want to go as a missionary? Why?

Without traveling abroad, how could you bring the world to you?

Can you imagine people from other countries coming to the United States as missionaries?

Would you invite missionaries to serve your church/community? Why?

What do you think missionaries should do as part of their ministry? Abroad? In the United States?

In what ways do you or could you support overseas ministries?

How can you see yourself, the world and others differently when you encounter someone from another country?

Do you agree with the statement that being in another country changes your world view? How? Why?
