Proverbs 28:2-2 (KJV) – “For the transgression of a land many [are] the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding [and] knowledge the state [thereof] shall be prolonged. When there is moral rot in a nation , it’s government topple easily.”

The image features two red boxing gloves, one on the left and one on the right, positioned as if they are about to clasp or have just unclasped. The gloves are made of a smooth, dark red material, likely leather or a similar synthetic material, and have black wristbands with white stitching. The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a boxing ring floor, with a subtle light gradient. Overlaid on the center of the gloves is the text "Fight for What is RIGHT". The words "Fight for What is" are in white, and the word "RIGHT" is in a bright yellow color, making it stand out as the focal point of the message.
