CITIZENS OF THE KINGDOM

Luke 4:43 (NLT) — “But he replied, “I must preach the Good News of the Kingdom of God in other towns, too, because that is why I was sent.”

Luke 8:1 (NLT) — “Soon afterward Jesus began a tour of the nearby towns and villages, preaching and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom of God. He took his twelve disciples with him”

Luke 9:1–2 (NLT) — “One day Jesus called together his twelve disciples and gave them power and authority to cast out all demons and to heal all diseases. 2 Then he sent them out to tell everyone about the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick.”

“As they were walking along, someone said to Jesus, ‘I will follow you wherever you go.’ 58 But Jesus replied, ‘Foxes have dens to live in, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has no place even to lay his head.’ 59 He said to another person, ‘Come, follow me.’ The man agreed, but he said, ‘Lord, first let me return home and bury my father.’ 60 But Jesus told him, ‘Let the spiritually dead bury their own dead! Your duty is to go and preach about the Kingdom of God.’ 61 Another said, 'Yes, Lord, I will follow you, but first let me say good-bye to my family.' 62 But Jesus told him, 'Anyone who puts a hand to the plow and then looks back is not fit for the Kingdom of God.'"

Luke 9:57-62 (NLT)

2 Peter 3:9 (NLT) — “The Lord isn’t really being slow about his promise, as some people think. No, he is being patient for your sake. He does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent.”

A floating island with a castle and a city, set against a starry night sky with a bright light source. The island is dark and appears to be made of stone or wood, with a large, ornate castle on top. The castle has a tall, pointed spire and is illuminated from within, casting a warm glow. Below the castle, a small town or city is visible, with several buildings and houses. The island is surrounded by a vast, dark sky filled with stars and nebulae. A bright, glowing light source, possibly a sun or moon, is visible behind the island, creating a lens flare effect. The overall scene is fantastical and ethereal.

Acts 1:3 (NLT) — “During the forty days after he suffered and died, he appeared to the apostles from time to time, and he proved to them in many ways that he was actually alive. And he talked to them about the Kingdom of God.”

Matthew 28:18–20 (NLT) — “Jesus came and told his disciples, ‘I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. 19 Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. 20 Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.’”

Mark 16:15–18 (NLT) — “And then he told them, “Go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone. 16 Anyone who believes and is baptized will be saved. But anyone who refuses to believe will be condemned. 17 These miraculous signs will accompany those who believe: They will cast out demons in my name, and they will speak in new languages. 18 They will be able to handle snakes with safety, and if they drink anything poisonous, it won't hurt them. They will be able to place their hands on the sick, and they will be healed.”

Luke 24:47 (NLT) — “It was also written that this message would be proclaimed in the authority of his name to all the nations, beginning in Jerusalem: ‘There is forgiveness of sins for all who repent.’”

John 20:21 (NLT) — “Again he said, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you.’”

Romans 10:13–15 (NLT) — “For ‘Everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved.’ 14 But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them? 15 And how will anyone go and tell them without being sent? That is why the Scriptures say, ‘How beautiful are the feet of messengers who bring good news!’”

Romans 10:13–15 (NLT) — “For ‘Everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved.’ 14 But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? “This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun! 18 And all of this is a gift from God, who brought us back to himself through Christ. And God has given us this task of reconciling people to him. 19 For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, no longer counting people’s sins against them. And he gave us this wonderful message of reconciliation. 20 So we are Christ’s ambassadors; God is making his

Isaiah 6:1 (NLT) — “It was in the year King Uzziah died that I saw the Lord. He was sitting on a lofty throne, and the train of his robe filled the Temple.”

A dramatic, glowing scene of a throne room. In the center, a figure sits on a large, ornate golden throne. A massive, flowing golden robe or shawl is draped across the foreground, partially obscuring the base of the throne. The background is filled with a bright, golden light, and several birds are seen flying in the sky. To the right, a structure with a fire on top is visible. The overall atmosphere is one of divine glory and power.

Isaiah 6:2–4 (NLT) — “Attending Him were mighty seraphim, each having six wings. With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. 3 They were calling out to each other, ‘Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Heaven’s Armies! The whole earth is filled with his glory!’ 4 Their voices shook the Temple to its foundations, and the entire building was filled with smoke.”

- He is full of love, grace and mercy

Isaiah 6:5 (NLT) — “Then I said, ‘It’s all over! I am doomed, for I am a sinful man. I have filthy lips, and I live among a people with filthy lips. Yet I have seen the King, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.’”

ISAIAH SEES HIMSELF AND THE WORLD AROUND HIM

Isaiah 6:6–7 (NLT) — “Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a burning coal he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. 7 He touched my lips with it and said, ‘See, this coal has touched your lips. Now your guilt is removed, and your sins are forgiven.’”

ISAIAH RECEIVES GOD'S GRACE

Isaiah 6:8 (NLT) — “Then I heard the Lord asking, ‘Whom should I send as a messenger to this people? Who will go for us?’ I said, ‘Here I am. Send me.’”

“Here I am. Send me.”
