The Love Of A Mother

Q: What are some of the ways we recognize mom's?

Q: What's "hard" about being a mom?

Q: What are some of the joys?

Some of the Ways Scripture Portrays Mothers:

READ: Deuteronomy 32:1 "Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, that flutters over its young, spreading out its wings, catching them, bearing them on its pinions (lit. "strength", often portrayed as "wings").

READ: Matthew 23:37 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing!"

READ: Isaiah 49:15 "Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should have no compassion on the son of her womb? Even these may forget, yet I will not forget you."

READ: Isaiah 66:13 "As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."

Q: in the above examples, how does scripture use the characteristics of a mother, to describe God?

Q: How is this different than how scriptures uses the characteristics of men to describe God?

Q: How does "together" show a fuller picture of God's character, purpose, love, for us?

Q: How does the evil one attack mothers to keep them from seeing their unique place in God's Kingdom and "image"?

Q: What are some ways we can combat this?

READ: Proverbs 31:28: "Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her"
