

Message Outline: It Is Finished – Living From What Grace Has Already Supplied

Main Theme:

We don't live trying to earn God's promises—we live from the completed work of Christ. Faith isn't about striving; it's about receiving.

1. Real Rest in the Flow of Divine Alignment

- Matthew 11:28-30 (MSG): Jesus invites us into rest, not religion.
- Rest is not passive—it's trust-driven action aligned with grace.
- (Hebrews 4:9-11)

2. Living by the Faith of Jesus

- Galatians 2:20 - We live by the faith of the Son of God, not by effort.
- Jesus is faith in motion; faith is not something we muster up.
- (Colossians 2:10)

3. From Striving to Receiving

- Faith is the hand that receives what grace already finished.
- Healing, provision, identity—these are already done.
- (2 Peter 1:3)

4. Seated with Christ, Not Struggling to Get There

- Heaven is not a future reward—it's a current position.
- We are seated in victory, not climbing toward it.
- (Ephesians 2:6)

5. Goodness Leads to Repentance

- God transforms us with His kindness, not threats.
- Repentance is a change of mind toward truth and rest.
- (Romans 2:4, Acts 3:19)

6. Freedom from Fear-Based Religion

- Religion says "Do more." Grace says "Live from what's done."
- We walk free from guilt, shame, and earning.
- (Galatians 5:1)

7. Final Call: Live from the Finished Work

- Don't try to earn what's already yours—receive it.
- Reckon yourself alive to God.
- (Romans 6:11)

Key Phrase to Remember:

"Faith doesn't create. Faith collects. Grace already supplied—now receive and walk it out."
