

TRANSFORMED

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard He was making and baptizing more disciples than John

John 4:1-26

<sup>2</sup>(though Jesus Himself was not baptizing, but His disciples were),

John 4:1-26

<sup>3</sup>H<sup>e</sup> left Judea and went again to Galilee.

John 4:1-26

<sup>4</sup>He had to travel through Samaria;

John 4:1-26

<sup>5</sup>so He came to a town of Samaria called Sychar near the property that Jacob had given his son Joseph.

John 4:1-26

<sup>6</sup>Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, worn out from His journey, sat down at the well. It was about noon.

John 4:1-26

<sup>7</sup>A woman of Samaria came to draw water.

“Give me a drink,” Jesus said
to her,

John 4:1-26

<sup>8</sup>because His disciples had gone into town to buy food.

John 4:1-26

<sup>9</sup>“How is it that you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?” she asked Him. For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.

John 4:1-26

<sup>10</sup>Jesus answered, “If you knew the gift of God, and who is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would ask Him, and He would give you living water.”

John 4:1-26

<sup>11</sup>“Sir,” said the woman, “you don’t even have a bucket, and the well is deep. So where do you get this ‘living water’?”

John 4:1-26

<sup>12</sup>You aren't greater than our father Jacob, are you? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and livestock."

John 4:1-26

<sup>13</sup>Jesus said, “Everyone who drinks from this water will get thirsty again.

John 4:1-26

<sup>14</sup>But whoever drinks from the water that I will give him will never get thirsty again. In fact, the water I will give him will become a well of water springing up in him for eternal life.”

John 4:1-26

<sup>15</sup>“Sir,” the woman said to Him,
“give me this water so that I
won’t get thirsty and come here to draw water.”

John 4:1-26

<sup>16</sup>“Go call your husband,” He told her, “and come back here.”

John 4:1-26

<sup>17</sup>“I don’t have a husband,” she answered.

“You have correctly said, ‘I don’t have a husband,’” Jesus said.

John 4:1-26

<sup>18</sup>“For you’ve had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true.”

John 4:1-26

<sup>19</sup>“Sir,” the woman replied, “I see that you are a prophet.”

John 4:1-26

<sup>20</sup>Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem.”

John 4:1-26

<sup>21</sup>Jesus told her, “Believe me, woman, an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

John 4:1-26

<sup>22</sup>You Samaritans worship what you do not know. We worship what we do know, because salvation is from the Jews.

John 4:1-26

<sup>23</sup>But an hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and in truth. Yes, the Father wants such people to worship Him.

John 4:1-26

<sup>24</sup>God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and in truth.”

John 4:1-26

<sup>25</sup>The woman said to Him, “I know that the Messiah is coming” (who is called Christ ).
“When He comes, He will explain everything to us.”

John 4:1-26

The image features a large, ornate, golden-brown frame with intricate carvings of leaves and flowers. The frame is split vertically: the left half is broken and crumbling, revealing a white, textured material underneath, while the right half remains intact and polished. The word "TRANSFORMED" is centered within the frame, with the letters "TRANSFORMED" in a dark, serif font and the final "D" in a golden-brown color that matches the frame's finish.
