

A still life composition featuring autumnal elements on a dark, textured wooden surface. At the top, there are several pumpkins of various sizes and colors (orange, green, and red), along with several red and yellow apples. Scattered around these are several large, dried maple leaves in shades of brown, orange, and yellow. Three small, lit candles in glass holders are placed among the leaves and pumpkins, casting a warm, soft glow. The overall atmosphere is cozy and seasonal.

The background is a dark, rich brown wood with a prominent vertical grain. At the top edge, several autumn leaves in shades of yellow, orange, and brown are scattered, some overlapping the wood. The text is centered and rendered in a clean, white, sans-serif font.

¹Hear what the LORD says:
Arise, plead your case before the
mountains,
and let the hills hear your voice.

Micah 6:1-16

²Hear, you mountains, the indictment of
the LORD,
and you enduring foundations of the
earth,
for the LORD has an indictment against
his people,
and he will contend with Israel.

Micah 6:1-16

³“O my people, what have I done to
you?
How have I wearied you? Answer me!

Micah 6:1-16

⁴For I brought you up from the land
of Egypt
and redeemed you from the house of slavery,
and I sent before you Moses,
Aaron, and Miriam.

Micah 6:1-16

⁵O my people, remember what Balak king
of Moab devised,
and what Balaam the son of Beor
answered him,
and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of
the LORD.”

Micah 6:1-16

⁶“With what shall I come before the LORD,
and bow myself before God on high?
Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?

Micah 6:1-16

⁷Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
with ten thousands of rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

Micah 6:1-16

⁸He has told you, O man, what is good;
and what does the LORD require of
you
but to do justice, and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with your God?

Micah 6:1-16

⁹The voice of the LORD cries to the city—
and it is sound wisdom to fear your name:

“Hear of the rod and of him who
appointed it!

Micah 6:1-16

¹⁰Can I forget any longer the treasures of wickedness in the house
of the wicked,
and the scant measure that is accursed?

Micah 6:1-16

¹¹Shall I acquit the man with wicked
scales
and with a bag of deceitful weights?

Micah 6:1-16

¹²Your rich men are full of violence;
your inhabitants speak lies,
and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

Micah 6:1-16

¹³Therefore I strike you with a grievous blow,
making you desolate because of your sins.

Micah 6:1-16

¹⁴You shall eat, but not be satisfied,
and there shall be hunger within you;
you shall put away, but not preserve,
and what you preserve I will give to the sword.

Micah 6:1-16

¹⁵You shall sow, but not reap;
you shall tread olives, but not anoint
yourselves with oil;
you shall tread grapes, but not drink
wine.

Micah 6:1-16

¹⁶For you have kept the statutes of Omri,
and all the works of the house of Ahab;
and you have walked in their counsels, that I may make you a desolation, and
your inhabitants a hissing;
so you shall bear the scorn of my people.”
