JESUS

ABOVE ALL

¹Therefore, holy brothers and sisters,
who share in a heavenly calling,
consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession.

Hebrews 3:1-6

²He was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses was in all God's household.

Hebrews 3:1-6

³For Jesus is considered worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder has more honor than the house.

Hebrews 3:1-6

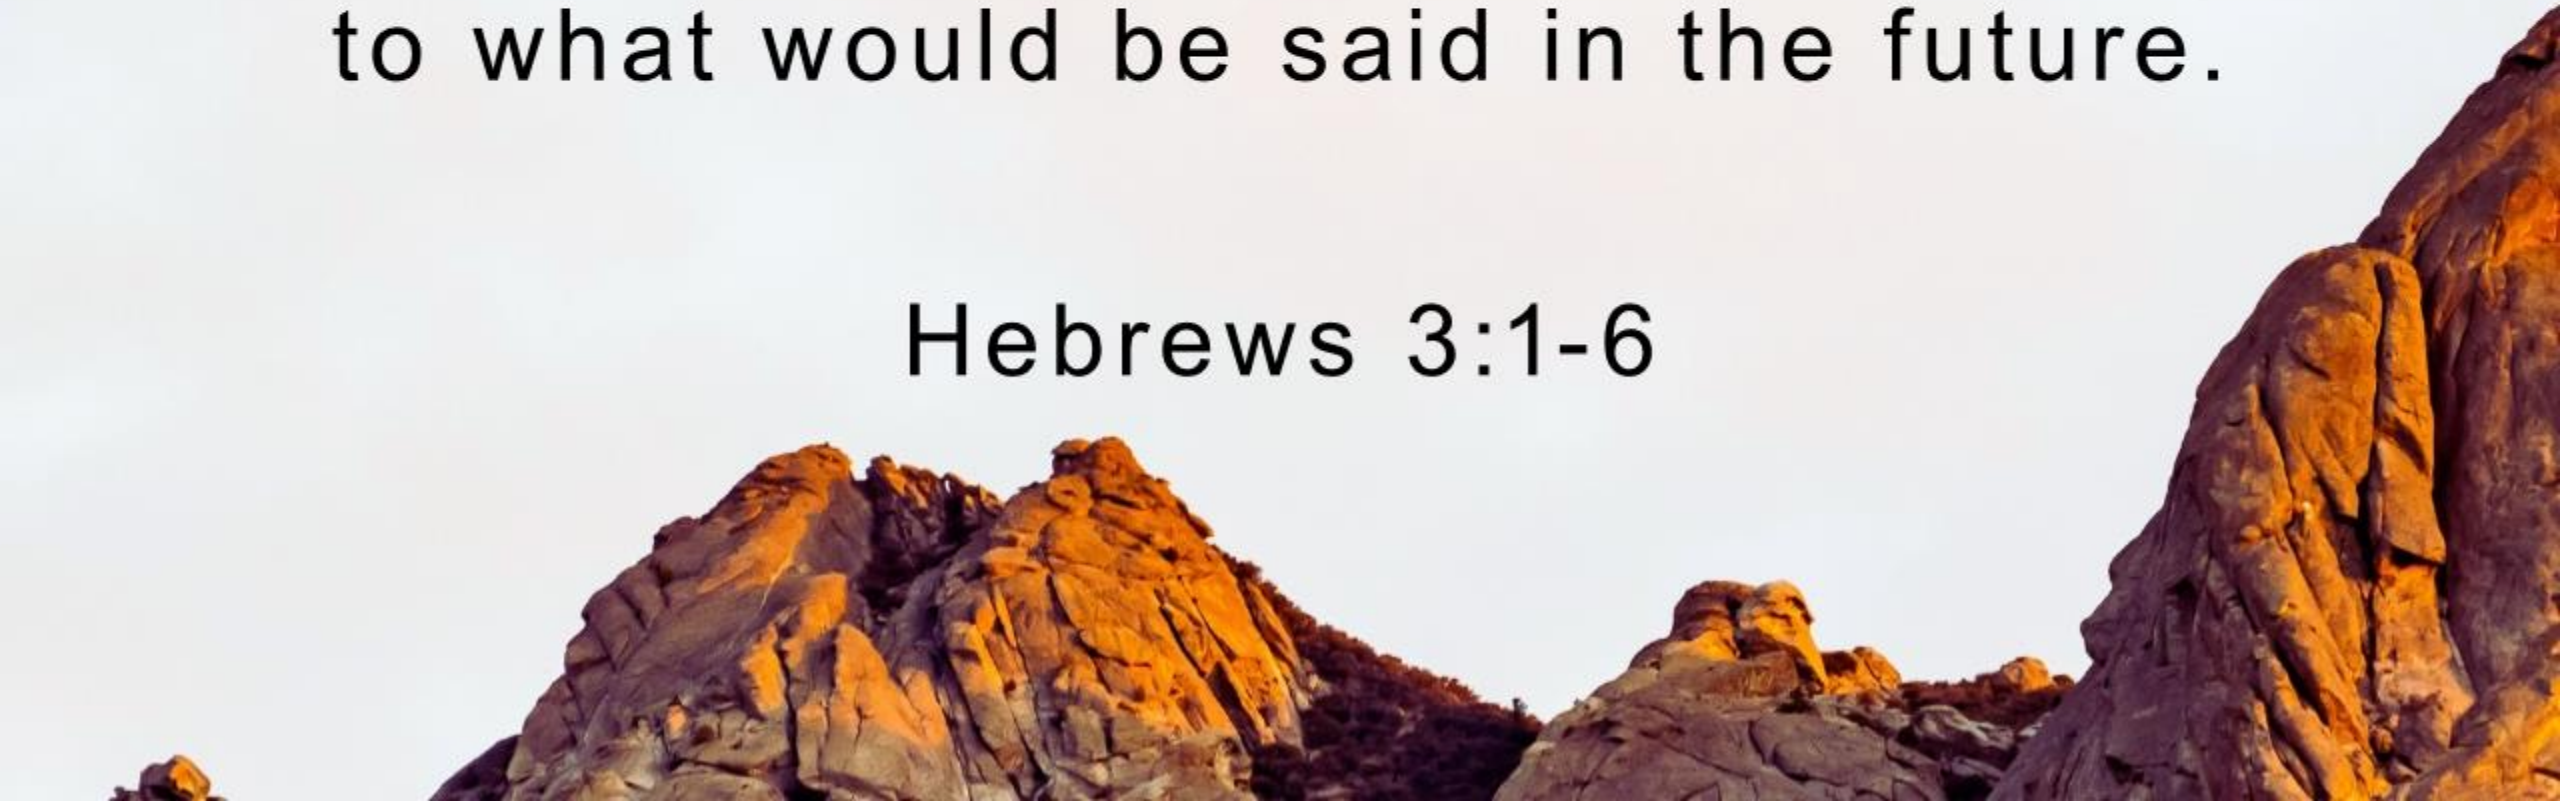

⁴Now every house is built by someone, but the one who built everything is God.

Hebrews 3:1-6

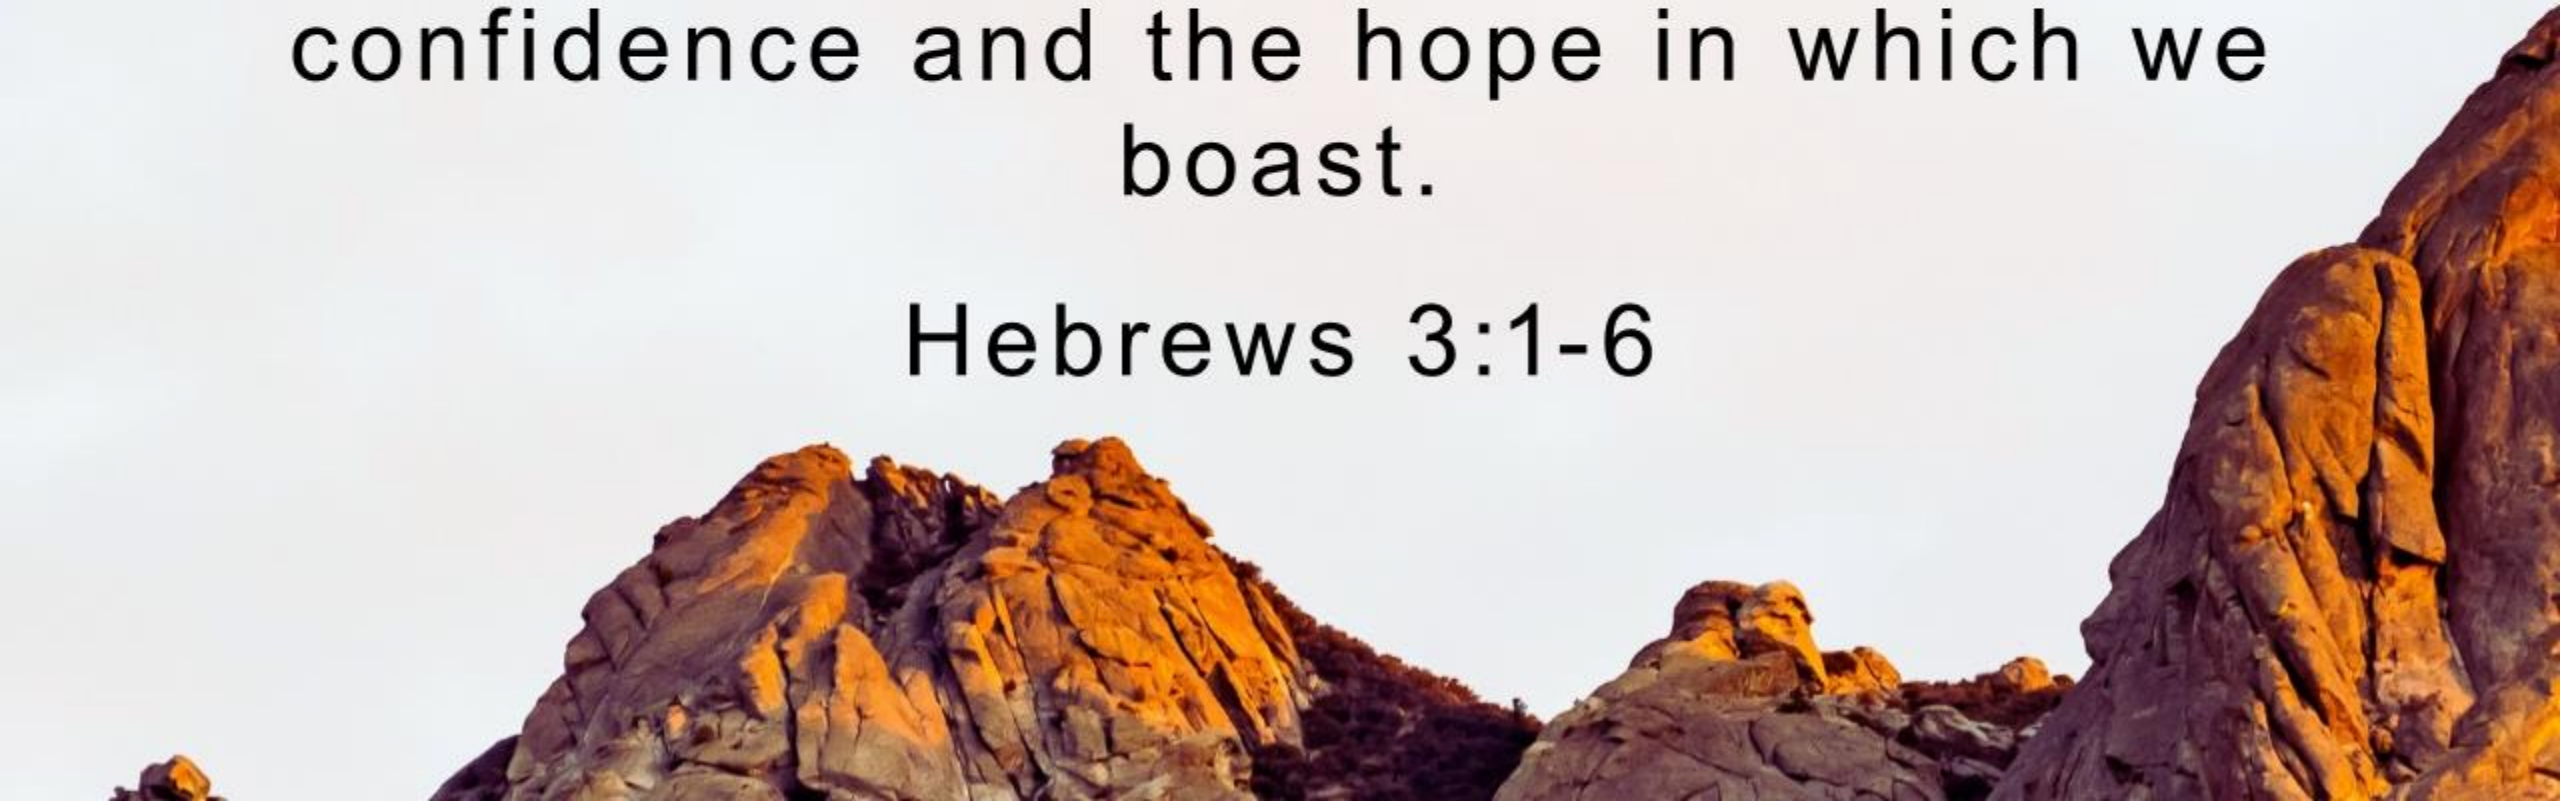

⁵Moses was faithful as a servant in all God's household, as a testimony to what would be said in the future.

Hebrews 3:1-6

⁶But Christ was faithful as a Son over his household. And we are that household if we hold on to our confidence and the hope in which we boast.

Hebrews 3:1-6

1. A Forgiven People Fixing Thoughts on Jesus

2. The Faithful Jesus Over the House of God

3. A Firm Hold to Our Hope and His Glory

A photograph of a rugged, rocky mountain peak at sunset or sunrise. The sky is a pale, clear blue, and the sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden light on the mountain's surface. The rock is a mix of grey and brown tones, with some areas appearing more reddish due to the low-angle light. The mountain has several sharp peaks and ridges. The overall scene is serene and majestic.
