“They should not preach these things; shame will not overtake us.”

Micah 2:6-11

<sup>7</sup>House of Jacob, should it be asked,
“Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient?
Are these the things he does?”

Don't my words bring good
to the one who walks uprightly?

Micah 2:6-11

<sup>8</sup>But recently my people have risen up like an enemy:
You strip off the splendid robe
from those who are passing through confidently, like those returning from war.

Micah 2:6-11

<sup>9</sup>You force the women of my people
out of their comfortable homes,
and you take my blessing
from their children forever.

Micah 2:6-11

<sup>10</sup>Get up and leave,
for this is not your place of rest
because defilement brings destruction — a grievous destruction!

Micah 2:6-11

<sup>11</sup>If a man comes and utters empty lies — “I will preach to you about wine and beer” — he would be just the preacher for this people!

Micah 2:6-11

<sup>31</sup>The prophets prophesy falsely,
and the priests rule by their own authority.

My people love it like this.
But what will you do at the end of it?

Jeremiah 5:31

<sup>10</sup>They say to the seers, “Do not see,”
and to the prophets,
“Do not prophesy the truth to us.
Tell us flattering things.
Prophesy illusions.

Isaiah 30:10

<sup>16</sup>Now hear the word of the LORD.
You say: Do not prophesy against Israel; do not preach against the house of Isaac.

Amos 7:16

<sup>9</sup>You force the women of my people
out of their comfortable homes,
and you take my blessing
from their children forever.
