

A photograph of a rugged, rocky mountain peak at sunset or sunrise. The sky is a pale, clear blue, and the sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden light on the mountain's surface. The rock is dark grey and brown, with some sparse green vegetation. The word "JESUS" is overlaid in large, black, serif capital letters across the top of the image.

JESUS

ABOVE ALL

¹⁰For in bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was entirely appropriate that God — for whom and through whom all things exist — should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

Hebrews 2:10-18

¹¹For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. That is why Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters,

Hebrews 2:10-18

¹²saying:
I will proclaim your name to my
brothers and sisters;
I will sing hymns to you in the congregation.

Hebrews 2:10-18

¹³Again, I will trust in him. And again,
Here I am with the children God gave me.

Hebrews 2:10-18

¹⁴Now since the children have flesh and blood in common, Jesus also shared in these, so that through his death he might destroy the one holding the power of death — that is, the devil —

Hebrews 2:10-18

¹⁵and free those who were held in slavery all their lives by the fear of death.

Hebrews 2:10-18

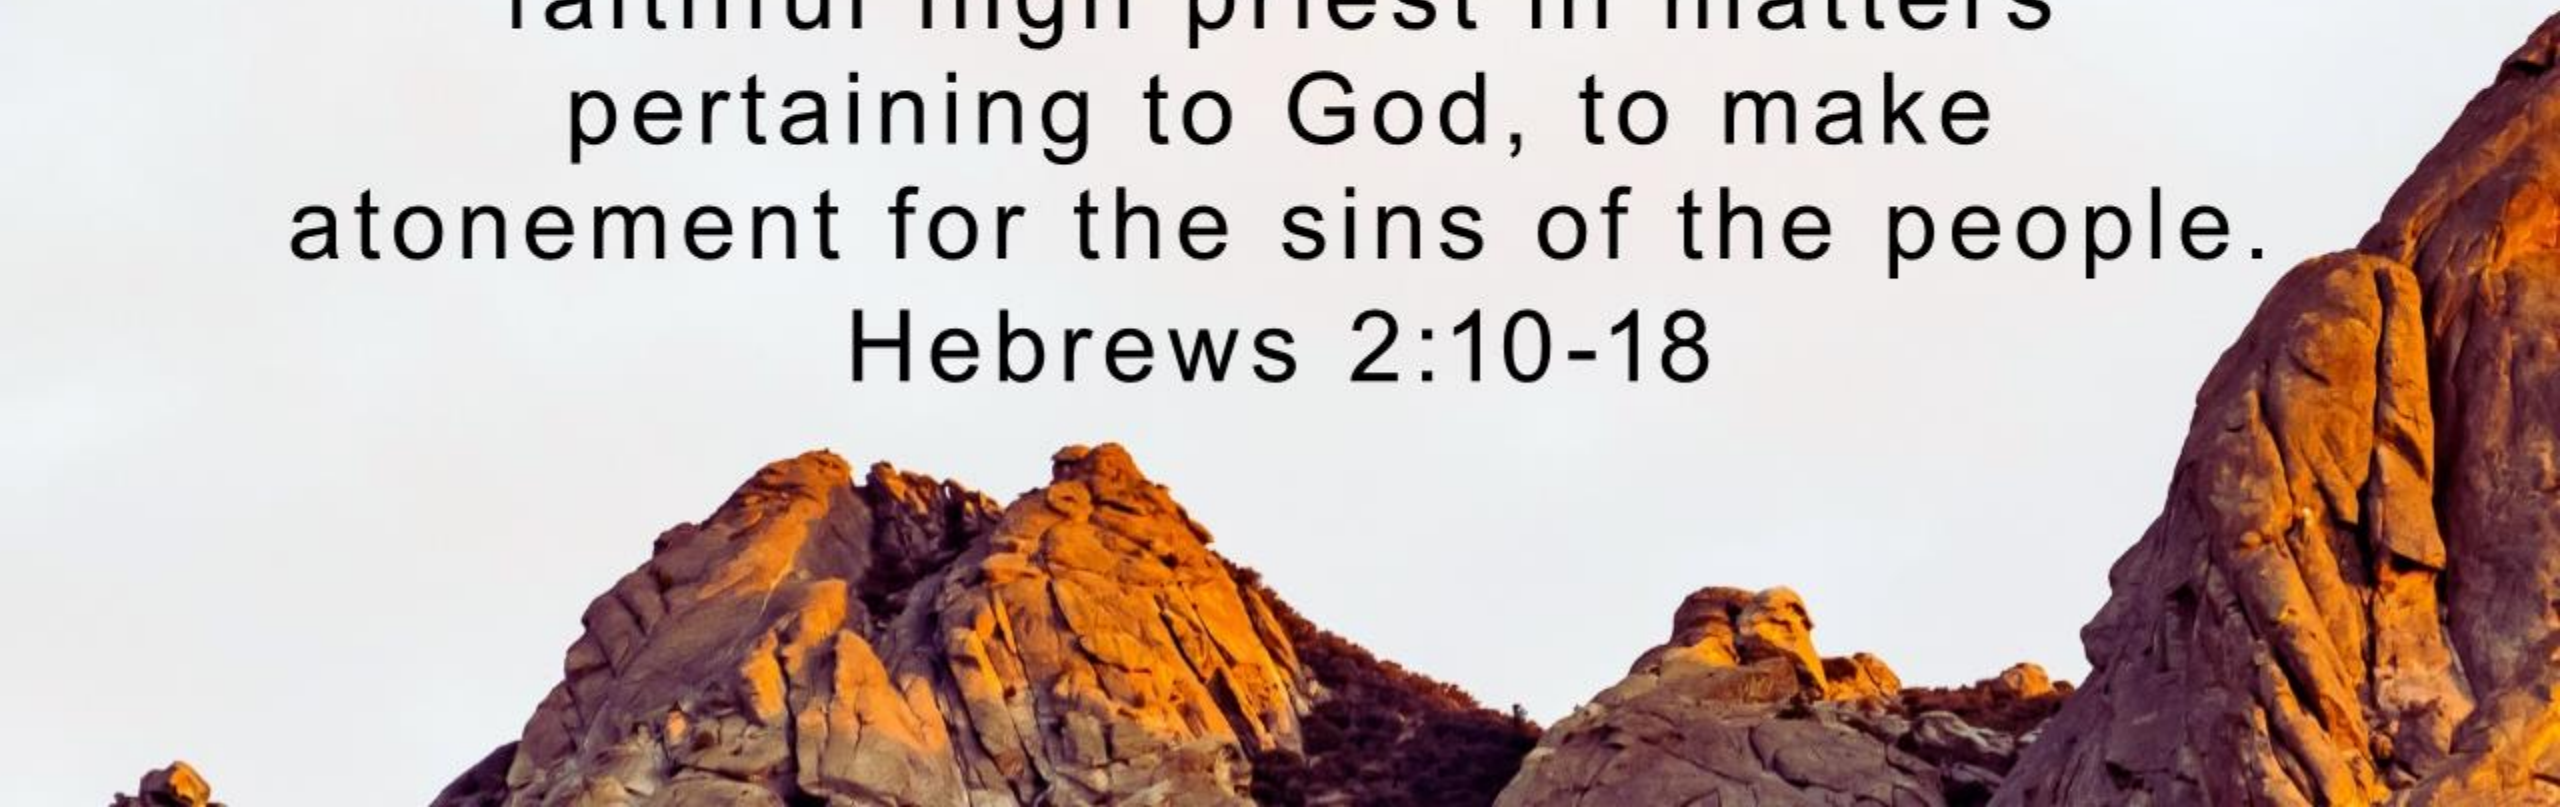

¹⁶For it is clear that he does not reach out to help angels, but to help Abraham's offspring.

Hebrews 2:10-18

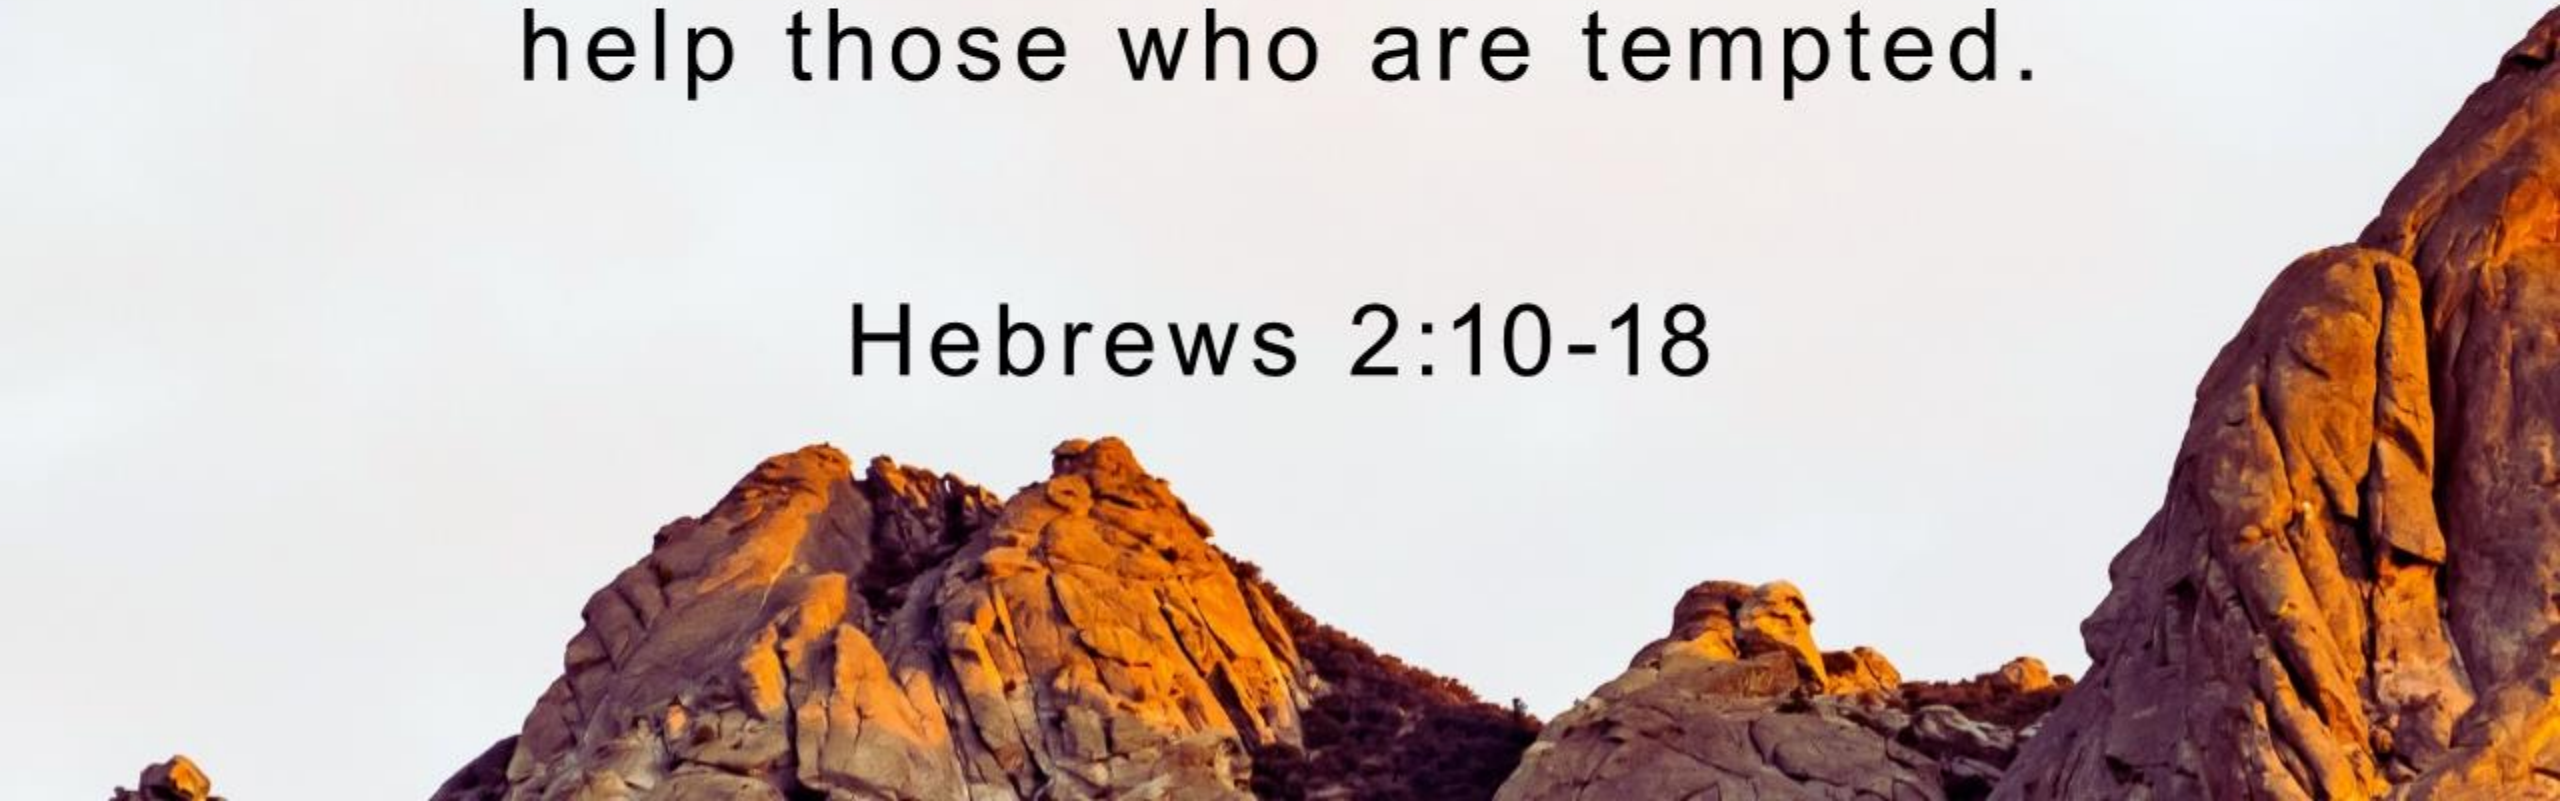

¹⁷Therefore, he had to be like his brothers and sisters in every way, so that he could become a merciful and faithful high priest in matters pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people.

Hebrews 2:10-18

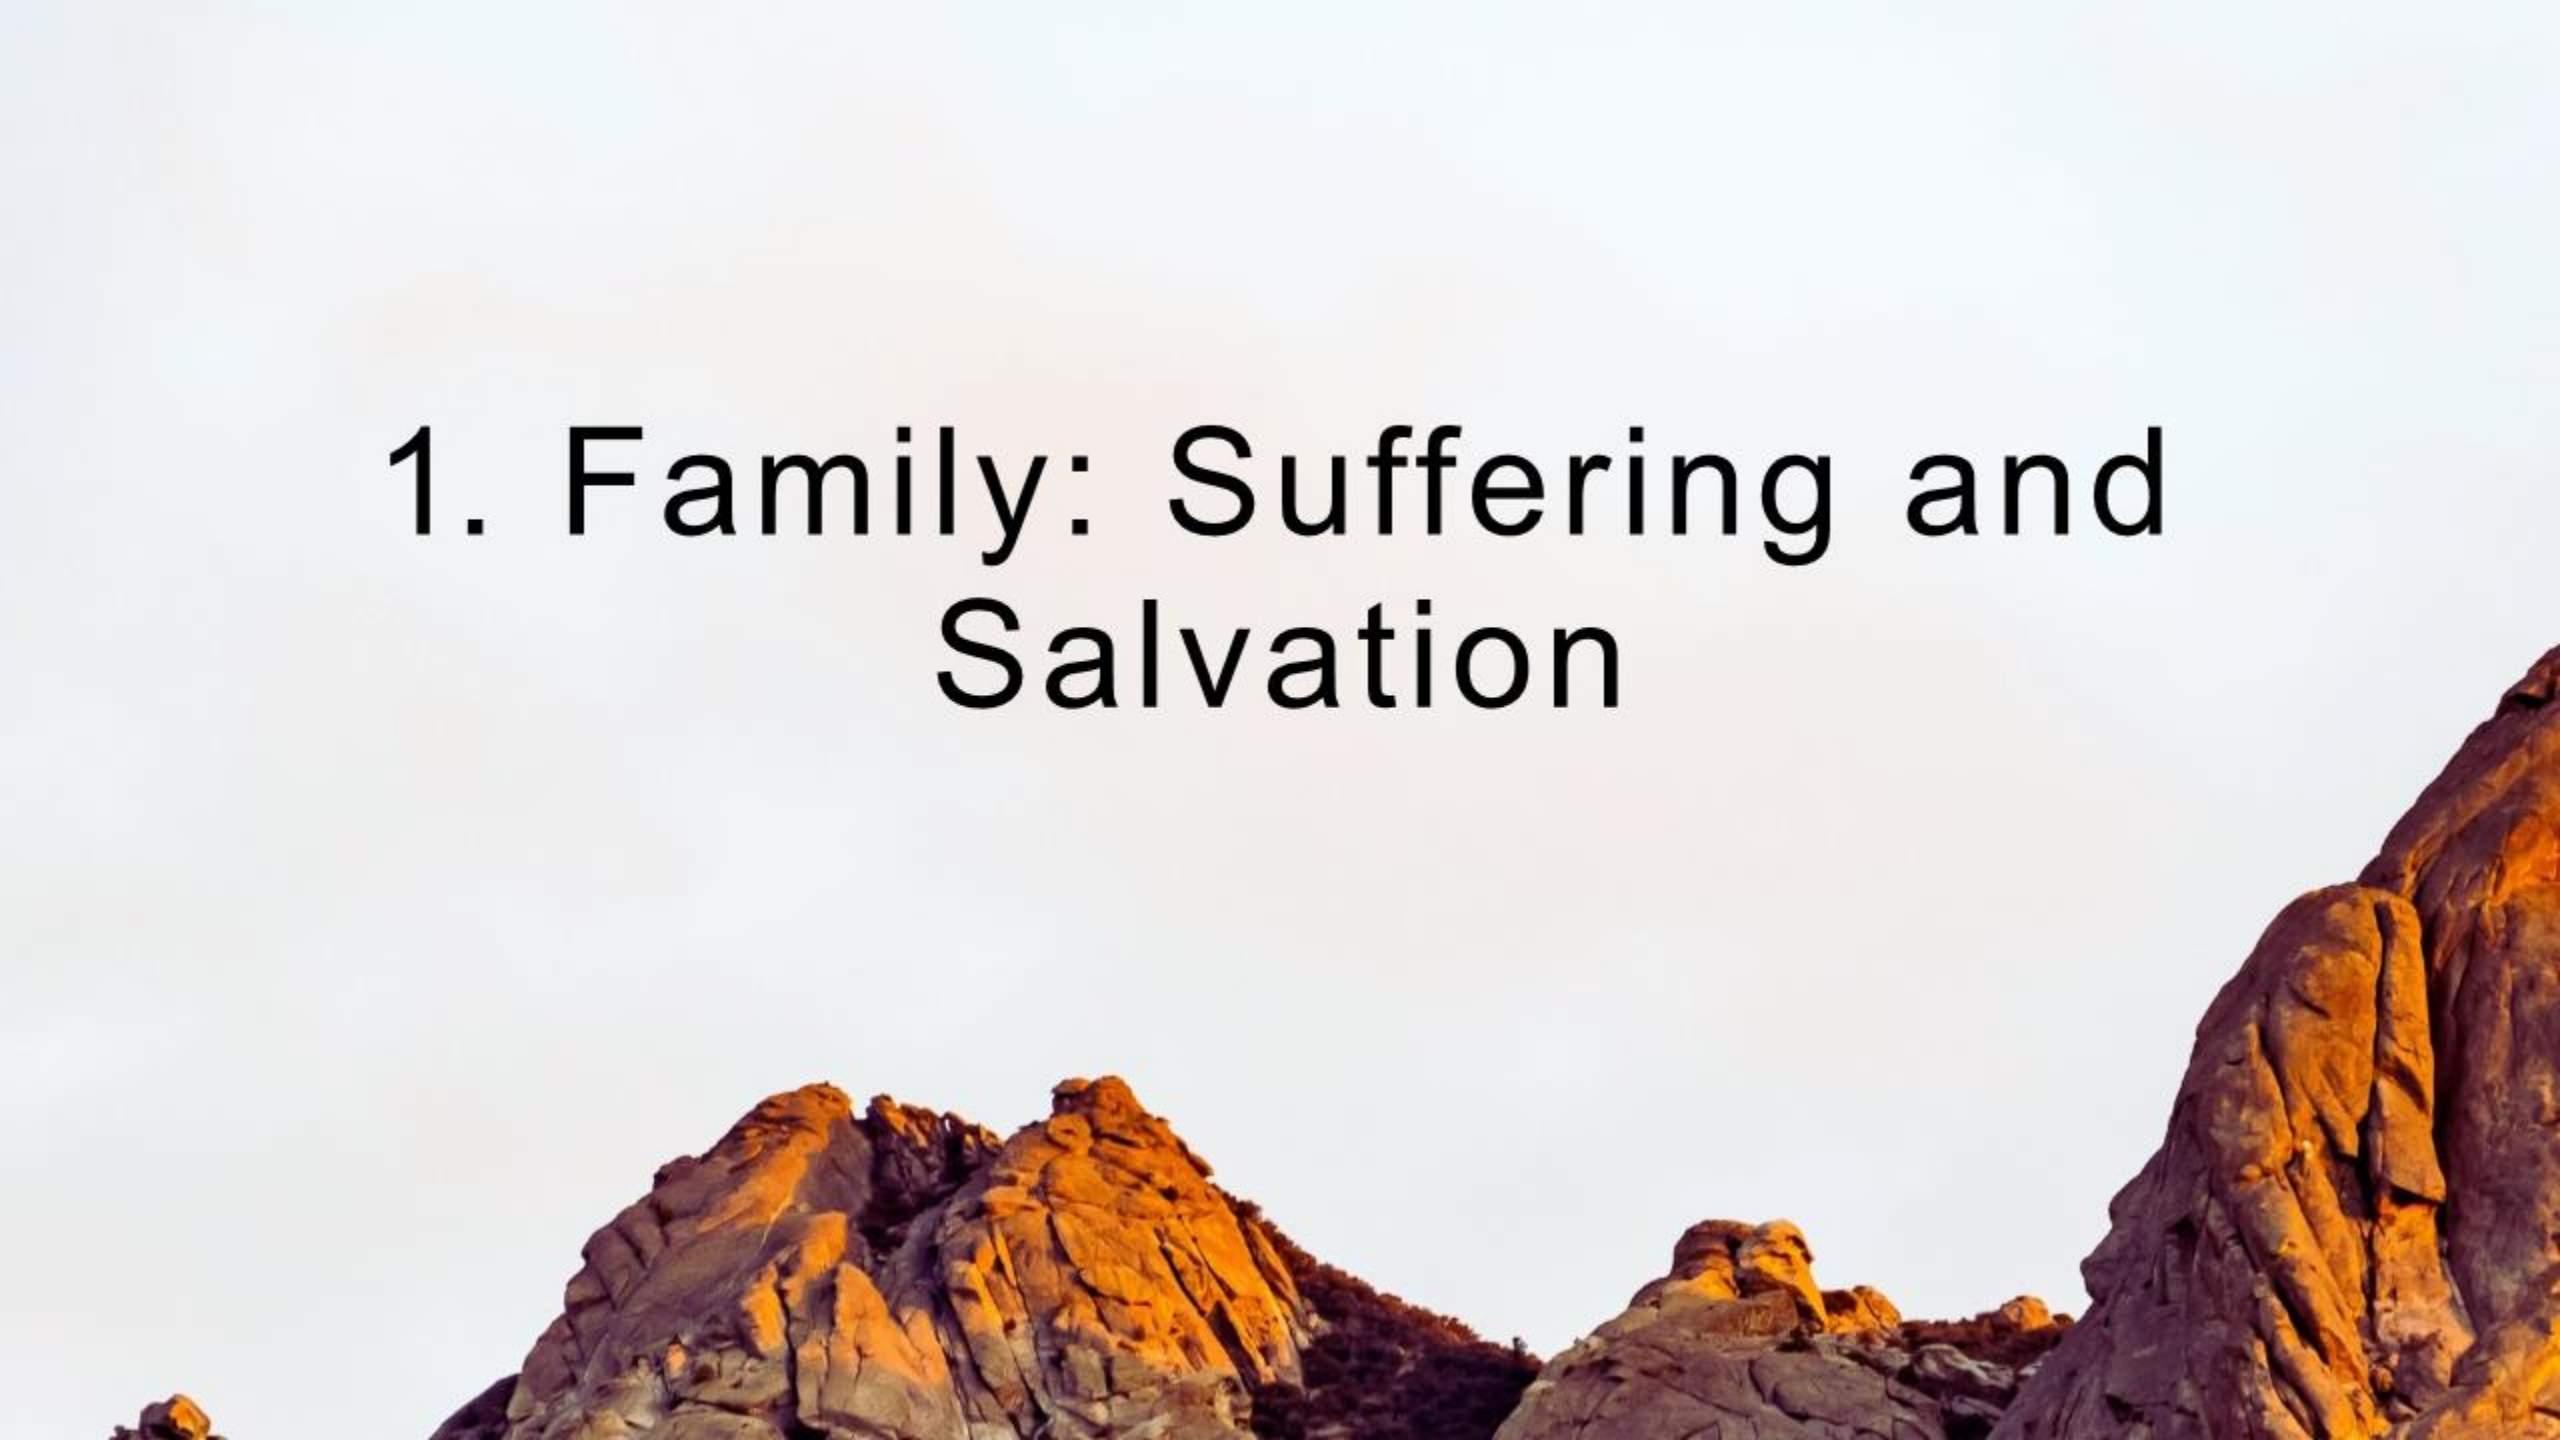

¹⁸For since he himself has suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

Hebrews 2:10-18

1. Family: Suffering and Salvation

2. Flesh: Sharing in Humanity

3. Faithful Priest: Service to the Suffering
