

A photograph of a rugged, rocky mountain peak at sunset or sunrise. The sky is a pale, clear blue. The mountain is composed of large, light-colored rock formations with some darker, shadowed areas. The lighting is warm, suggesting the golden hour. The word "JESUS" is overlaid in large, black, serif capital letters across the top of the image.

JESUS

⁵For he has not subjected to angels
the world to come that we are talking about.

Hebrews 2:5-9

⁶But someone somewhere has testified:
What is man that you remember him,
or the son of man that you care for him?

Hebrews 2:5-9

⁷You made him lower than the angels
for a short time;
you crowned him with glory and honor

Hebrews 2:5-9

⁸and subjected everything under his feet.

For in subjecting everything to him,
he left nothing that is not subject to him. As it is, we do not yet see everything subjected to him.

Hebrews 2:5-9

⁹But we do see Jesus — made lower than the angels for a short time so that by God's grace he might taste death for everyone — crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death.

Hebrews 2:5-9

1. God Has Considered Humanity

2. God Has Crowned Humanity

3. God Has Interceded on Behalf of Humanity
