Spend quality time with your Heavenly Father in Praise and Worship.

Confession

I give God the praise because His eyes go to and fro to show himself. I thank the Lord for his continuous protection. I give glory to God for building a wall of fire around me and my family.

I boldly confess that I am shielded from anything and everything that destroys warrior angels surrounding my habitation. There is a hedge around me which the enemy cannot penetrate. I boldly confess that the Lord fights for me, defeating my strong enemies. Every satanic attack is turned around for my blessings and increase. I take authority over the spirit of fear and declare that nothing shall make me afraid. The angels of the Lord surround me. The Holy spirit guides my steps. The sprinkled blood of Jesus covers everything that belongs to me. I shall dwell in safety for the rest of my life.

Give God the praise because His eyes go to and fro to show himself strong on behalf of those who trust him in Jesus name.
