

Discussion Questions

What does it mean to you that God knew Jeremiah before he was formed in the womb, as mentioned in Jeremiah 1:5?

- Pastor talked about how God's knowledge of us predates our existence and shapes our identity.
- How can understanding that you are known and chosen by God impact the way you view your own life and worth?

Pastor highlighted various factors that contribute to feelings of despair and the choice of life. What are some common challenges teenagers face today that can lead to feelings of hopelessness?

- The sermon discusses modern anxieties and pressures, including social media and general life challenges.
- In what ways can you support a friend who might be struggling with these feelings?

Why is it important to see yourself through God's perspective rather than through how others perceive you, according to the sermon?

- Pastor emphasized that people often judge based on their own views, but God's perspective is what ultimately defines us.
- Can you think of a time when you felt judged by others, and how did that affect your self-image? How can you combat negative perceptions?

What appointments or purposes do you think God has for your life, as discussed in the sermon?

- Pastor mentioned that God has a unique plan for each individual and that we must live to discover those appointments.
- What steps can you take to seek out and understand your God-given purpose?

In what ways can recalling God's faithfulness in your life give you hope during difficult times?

- Pastor pointed out that remembering how God has helped us in the past can encourage us to keep going in the present.
- Reflect on a challenging experience you've faced; how did you see God's hand at work during that time?
- amidst life's uncertainties and challenges.

