

Day 24

Thank you for intricately designing me to be yours.

MIN. PATRICIA PROBY

SCRIPTURE READING OF THE DAY:
JEREMIAH 1:5

Prayer

Thank you for creating me before. Thank you for intricately designing me to be yours. Even in my mother's womb, You called me holy, You separated me, You ordained me and, YOU called me.

Thank you, for as I emerged from the womb, You guided me, You kept me, You sustained me to be your vessel to share with others who YOU are! Thank you for your design of me.

God use me as your vessel to be a witness to others that even through tough circumstances, you are God!
The design you knew before! Thank you!
