

Questions for Genesis 3:1-13

1. What are some ways that you have experienced God's goodness in your life (either a highlight or within the last year)?
2. Are there any areas where you are tempted to doubt God's goodness?
3. Why do you think it is important to keep the cross-connected to God's goodness? How do you do that?
4. How did you react to the point that a "Christian must agree that God has absolute authority in their lives and that you can trust God with that authority"?
5. How have you seen self-autonomy overpromise and underdeliver in your own life?
6. How have you seen God rescue you from your "own ruin"?
7. Are you confident in bringing your questions, temptations, and failures to God?