“The Lord commands us to do good unto all people without exception, though the majority are very undeserving when judged according to their own merits... [The Scripture] teaches us that we must not think of a person’s earned value, but only of His creation in the image of God to which we owe all possible honor and love.”
John Calvin

1. What qualities do you possess that allow others to love you? If you lost those qualities, would you no longer be worth loving?
2. How do you define love?
3. How does Jesus define love?
4. How do we understand living in the darkness of this sin-filled world, yet recognize the light of Christ is shining.
5. What does it mean to be clothed in Christ?
